Farmers Federation Declares Dividend

The 43rd consecutive dividend has been declared today by the Farmers Federation, payable January 1, 1955, to all holders of common stock at 6 per cent and preferred stock at 5 per cent of record December 15, 1954.

The dividend was declared by the executive committee of directors, whose members include James G. K. McClure, James McClure Clarke, Grover C. Brown, H. A. Osborne, Charles Davis, R. A. Crowell, D. M. Snelson, and C. C. Cook.

The committee also announced plans to build a new Farmers Federation building in Murphy, replacing the present structure to serve the rapidly developing agriculture of Cherokee County. Additional stock has been issued to finance this building, and construction will be started in the spring.

Serving the farmers of Western North Carolina since 1920, the Farmers Federation now has more than 27,000 stockholders located throughout the area.

During the past year over $5,700,000 was paid by the Federation to W. N. C. farmers for milk, eggs, poultry, tobacco, and other farm products.

The organization now operates 25 county warehouses and eight freezer locker plants in addition to a poultry dressing plant, hatchery and Skyline Dairies, located in Asheville.
