

The muffed grouse is one of a very few species which more people are encouraged to hunt. Biologists believe that North Carolina produces enough grouse to permit a great deal more hunting.

Mrs. Parker, Macon Native, Dies At Waynesville Home At Age Of 61

Mrs. Minnie Ernie Nichols Parker, a native of Macon, died December 11 at her home in Waynesville. It has been learned here. She was 61 and had been in declining health for some time.

Funeral services for Mrs. Parker, who was married to J. L. Parker, also a Macon native, were conducted December 14 at the Grassy Branch Methodist Church, near Oteen. Nephews were pallbearers and nieces were flower girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker lived on Franklin, Route 2, before moving to Buncombe County several years ago, and later to Waynesville. She was a member of the Union Methodist Church here.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her father, C. D. Nichols, of Franklin; four sons, Charlie Parner, of Waynesville, J. L. Parker, Jr., of Woodfin, and George and Eugene Parker, both of Waynesville; four daughters, Mrs. Lee West, of Asheville, Mrs. Ardith Smith, of California, Mrs. Robert Gore, of Middleton, Ohio, and Mrs. Charles Brown, of Clemson, S. C.; two sisters, Mrs. J. L. Lewis, of Canton, and Mrs. Judd Morgan, of Franklin; a brother, Thad Nichols, of Franklin; and eight grandchildren.

Relatives from here attending the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. Judd Morgan, Thad Nichols, Mrs. Frank Jamison, Mrs. Ray Franklin, Vester, Cecil, and Arvil Parker, Mrs. John McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker, Mrs. Blanche Moffitt, and Sam Sellers.
