COLLEGE STUDENTS
AT OPEN HOUSE

The Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Moss held open house at the parsonage Sunday afternoon from 3:30 until 5 o'clock, honoring the college students of the Franklin Methodist Church and the Carson Chapel Methodist Church.

Tea and cookies were served. Mrs. Roy M. Biddle assisted in serving.

MISS HENRY IS BRIDE OF RUSSELL M'KELVEY

Miss Betty Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, of Franklin, Route 5, and Russell McKelvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McKelvey, of Franklin, were married Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the chapel of the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. M. W. Chapman, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was given by Miss Audrey Hays, vocalist, and Mrs. H. W. Cabe, pianist.

The bride entered the chapel alone. She wore a suit of light blue with white accessories and carried a white Bible topped with an orchid with satin streamers.

Miss Dorothy Medlin, of Charlotte and Franklin, served as maid of honor. She wore a pink faille dress with navy velvet bolero, and her accessories were navy. She carried a nosegay of mixed pastel flowers, tied with blue satin ribbon.

Herbert McKelvey served as his brother's best man. Gary McKelvey, brother of the groom, was usher.

The mother of the bride wore a blue suit and her corsage was of red roses. The groom's mother wore a dress of grey taffeta and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the groom gave a reception at their home on White Oak Street. Assisting in serving were Mrs. William Phillips, Mrs. Rufus Snyder, Miss Jane Zickgraf, and Miss Ann Henry, sister of the bride. Mrs. Walter Hall, Jr., kept the bride's book.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chandler, grandparents of the groom, and Miss Alice Chandler, aunt of the groom, all of Donaldsonville, Ga.

Mrs. McKelvey is a graduate of Franklin High School and attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. She is now employed by Art Furniture Company in Macon, Ga.

Mr. McKelvey is a graduate of Franklin High School, attended Georgia Tech, Atlanta, and is now a student at Mercer University, Macon.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will live in Macon.

MISS CUNNINGHAM WEDS
GEORGE BULLARD BROWN

Miss Jeana Sue Cunningham became the bride of George Bullard Brown Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Franklin Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Cunningham, of Franklin, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown, of Franklin.

The Rev. Bryan Hatchett, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was given by Miss Audrey Hays, vocalist, and Mrs. Margaret Cooper, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an antique faille ballerina-length dress, fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt, with matching hat. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and satin streamers.

Miss Sue Hopper, of Highlands, was maid of honor. She wore a pink ballerina-length dress with matching headress. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations with blue satin streamers.

R. R. Cunningham, of Franklin, was best man. Ushers were Sam Cunningham, of Cornelia, Ga., and Neville Wooten, of Franklin.

Following the ceremony, the couple received in the rear of the church.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Cunningham, of Cornelia.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a grey suit, with which she wore aqua accessories. She wore a corsage of talisman roses.

The groom's mother wore a grey suit with black accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Franklin High School and is now a student at Western Carolina College, Cullowhee.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of Franklin High School and is now serving with the U. S. Marines, stationed at Camp Lejeune.

The couple left for a wedding trip through the south.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"Glory to God in the Highest and on Earth..." — Luke II-14

Christmas comes as a reminder, to nations as well as to individuals, that the promise of peace on earth is coupled with good will toward men.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Above is the final one in the "Our Democracy" series, which have appeared from time to time in The Press for the past ten years. The artist, Hubert J. Mathieu, died recently. This Christmas drawing was his last.)
