W. A. JENKINS DIES SUNDAY

Swain Farmer Was
80 Years Old; Rites
Held On Tuesday

William Atkins Jenkins, 80-year-old farmer, died of pneumonia Sunday at 12:45 p. m. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Martin Wykle, in the Liberty community.

Mr. Jenkins became ill about a week before his death. Up to then he "worked like an 18-year-old" at farming, according to members of his family.

Funeral services for the Swain County native were conducted Tuesday at 1 p. m. at the Liberty Baptist Church by the Rev. Pete Meisner. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born September 4, 1874, Mr. Jenkins was the son of Alex and Mrs. Alice Marr Jenkins. He was a Seventh Day Adventist and was married in 1901 to Miss Hattie Donaldson, of Murphy. He had been living with his daughter here for about a year.

Surviving are a son, Scotson J. Jenkins, of Freeland; three daughters, Mrs. Katie Cochran, of Alarka, Mrs. Grace Cherry, of Mathis, Tex., and Mrs. Martin Wykle, of Franklin, Route 4; a brother, John Jenkins, of Waynesville; a sister, Mrs. Laura Dehart, of Grovesville, Tenn.; 16 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Buel Mason, Frank Wykle, Pratt Dalton, Carol Gibson, Arthur Shepard, and Harley Shepard.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

An outstanding proved Jersey bull, Sybil Owl Esmond, is now available to 65 North Carolina artificial breeding associations. Sybil's first 26 daughters have averaged 11,260 pounds of milk and 564 pounds of fat on a twice daily 305-day mature basis.

McClure Injured In Auto Collision Monday Evening

A 19-year-old Gneiss man is recovering at Angel Hospital from injuries he received early Monday evening on NC 28 when the automobile in which he was a passenger was involved in a head-on collision with another automobile.

The hospital yesterday (Wednesday) reported the injured man, William Edward McClure, was recovering satisfactorily. He received lacerations of the face and a concussion.

The driver of the car in which Mr. McClure was a passenger was identified as Jack Sheridan McCoy, 21, also of Gneiss. Highway Patrolman A. A. Lewis, the investigating officer, said the McCoy automobile, traveling south, hit head-on with a north-bound car driven by Ben Giles, 47, of Franklin, Route 4, as McCoy attempted to pass another vehicle. The patrolman said McCoy's 1952 Chevrolet skidded 188 feet, threw Mr. McClure out on the shoulder of the highway, and then skidded 20 more feet into a power pole near the intersection of the Burningtown Road. McCoy has been charged with drunk driving, the officer said.

Damage to Mr. Giles' 1949 Ford was estimated at $400, and the McCoy Chevrolet $800.

John R. Guffey and Furman Allen, both of Franklin, Route 4, were listed by the patrolman as witnesses to the wreck, which happened about 6:30.

January 31, 1955, is the closing date for Commodity Credit Corporation loans and purchase agreements on 1954 crops of wheat, rye, rice, barley, oats, grain sorghums, peanuts, soybeans, dry edible beans, and cottonseed.
