Yes, indeed...biscuits go like hot cakes when you pour on plenty of delicious dark Karo... there's nothing like it for good eating. Satisfyin' flavor. So rich it stands right up on top of biscuits (keeps 'em light and fluffy). Keep Karo on your table morning, noon and night...it tops anything!

Babblin' About
'Tourist' Zeb's Shorts
J. P. Brady

That unpredictable but refreshing Franklin character, Zeb Angel, is currently putting (with a considerable amount of glee) a torch to the male fashion world.

Zeb is using a pair of Bermuda shorts to accomplish this incendiary mission of his.

Folks, you haven't lived until you've seen Zeb in those shorts. (This doesn't mean that citizens away from Franklin should come to town, but if you don't, you'll hate yourself for missing him.)

I'm still in the final stages of hysteria from seeing this shorts-clad Angel fashion plate Sunday afternoon. And I can't remember when I've seen anything funnier.

I walked into a downtown restaurant for a bracing cup of coffee—and there sat Zeb at the counter, a resplendent figure of a man in knee-length blue shorts, a natty checkered golf hat, and turtle-necked polo shirt.

Fighting desperately to hold on to my remaining measure of sanity I calmly asked him:

"Zeb, what in the name of common sense happened to your britches?"

"Be careful how you talk to a money-spending tourist," Zeb answered, masticating a piece of meat on his plate. This was an accomplishment in itself since Zeb refuses to wear his false teeth. "These shorts are the coming thing!"

"Yeah, but it's not the coming that bothers me, Zeb," I protested. "It's the going."

"Don't make light of 'em, son," he cautioned, "you'll be wearing 'em before long... that Troupe Callahan and Prelo Dryman have a couple of thousand pairs and they mean to sell 'em."

Zeb's jaw protruded knowingly, and a wink jumped in his left eye.

"And don't you be making fun of Zeb's knees, son... when ol' Zeb was younger they were prettier than any some young gal had."

He winked knowingly again.

"And about these shorts, ol' Zeb didn't know just how crazy the women were over him until he put 'em on... they've been whistling at me all morning."

This time I winked at Zeb, with the wisdom of the ages behind it.

And if you gals feel disposed to whistle at me in my shorts, make it loud and clear!

SO THE GRASS IS ALWAYS GREENER

Note: To those who feel Franklin should have let a professional outfit help with staging the centennial.

The following is from a fellow newsman in another area where a centennial also is in the making:

"Just now I'm up to my ears working on several projects for the Centennial in May. I am fearful that they are overstepping themselves with a professional-sponsored drama. They estimate that all features will bring in $29,000 with an expense of $14,000. I don't know whether there is that much money in it. I think you folks did a wise thing to keep it down to about three days and sponsor local features..."

Complete and official figures show that again in 1954—for the 19th straight year—
MORE PEOPLE BOUGHT CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR

No other low-priced car even comes close to matching these important Chevrolet advantages...

If you're planning to buy a new car, the one you just can't afford to miss seeing is Chevrolet—for 19 straight years America's best-selling car. The Motorama Chevrolet offers you so much more than the other low-priced cars that it's hardly fair to compare them. And even the high-priced cars don't have all the advantages that today's Chevrolet offers you.

The beauty's built in—not bolted on! Chevrolet's beauty is inherent in the basic contours of metal and glass. There's no excessive bolted-on ornamentation to go out of style overnight.

The Body's by Fisher! You see Body by Fisher on lots of the high-priced cars—and only Chevrolet has it in the low-price field!

Today's most modern engines! That goes for Chevrolet's new V8 and two new sixes as well. All bring you a modern 12-volt electrical system—double the voltage of other low-priced cars. Then Chevrolet's new Turbo-Fire V8 has the shortest piston stroke in the industry!

A drive to suit your driving! There's silky, peppery Powerglide (even better this year!), new Overdrive (with extra-cost options), and a new Synchromesh transmission that's as smooth as they come.

All the power helpers you want! Windows, seat, steering, brakes—all are available with built-in "muscles" to make driving as effortless as you wish. They're optional at extra-cost—and worth it!

Come take the key! There have never been so many good reasons why you should drive a Chevrolet!
