

CHURCH GROUP HOLDS MEET

Okays Selection of Speaker For Lectures; Asks Push Of Tickets

The Highlands inter-church group met in a supper meeting at the Highlands Baptist Church on Monday, July 11.

The group was led in a devotional by the Rev. R. T. Houts, pastor of the Highlands Methodist Church. The business session was presided over by the chairman, Davis A. Rhodes.

A committee set up at the last meeting of the group to secure a speaker for a series of week-night lectures during the last part of the summer reported it had several speakers in mind and the group voted for them to choose a suitable one.

Tickets for the Transylvania Music Camp Orchestra Concert, which is to be presented in the Highlands School auditorium on July 23, were presented to the ministers of the town and they were urged to push their sale.

Dr. Herbert Koeppe-Baker was appointed as a chairman of a committee to work with Dr. C. R. Bittle in the blood bank, which is to be in Highlands in the near future.

The group was dismissed by the Rev. L. Eugene Walter, pastor of the Highlands Baptist Church.

The next meeting will be a supper meeting on September 19.

Teams Split Games Here

In a Fourth of July game with the Franklin baseball team, Highlands came out on top by a score of 4 to 1.

James Potts was the leading hitter for Highlands with two for four.

Both teams received six hits. Richard Thompson pitched for Highlands and Teague and Corbin pitched for Franklin. Houston was the catcher for Highlands.

In Sunday's game with the Anderson Y. M. C. A. team, Highlands lost 12 to 5. Harry Holt was the losing pitcher and Ridley the winning pitcher. Gene Houston was catcher for Highlands and also the leading hitter with three for four.

On Sunday, July 17, Highlands will play a team from La France, S. C., in Highlands. The starting time for the game is 2:30.

Reception Honors Rector And Family

A reception was given on Sunday (July 10) in the social hall of the Highlands Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, honoring Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Koeppe-Baker and family.

Dr. Koeppe-Baker is the newly-elected rector of the church and also is on the faculty of Western Carolina College.

Keys To Preach At Church July 17

The Rev. Robert M. Hart, pastor of the Highlands Presbyterian Church, has announced that Kenneth S. Keyes, of Highlands and Miami, Fla., will deliver the morning message on July 17.

Mr. Keyes' message will be, "Our Partnership With God."
