Supper And Sale Marks Carson's Monthly Meeting

By MRS. LEONA W. MOORE
(Community Reporter)

A "pot luck" supper and "white elephant sale" featured the July 9 meeting of the Carson Rural Community Development Organization at the community building.

The sale was conducted by the president, Earl Cabe, and J. Fred Bryson. The supper and sale brought $45.50.

At the business meeting, pledges were received on the building fund. They amounted to $250.

Plans were made for a Sunday dinner later in the year. Tickets will be sold in advance.

Mrs. Pearson Guest Speaker At Club Meet

The Franklin Garden Club held its July meeting at "Dixie Hall" Monday afternoon, with Miss Hope Daniels, Mrs. W. E. Furr, and Mrs. Ellis C. Soper, as hostesses. Mrs. Arthur Pearson, of Fletcher, district director of District No. 1 of North Carolina Garden Clubs, was the guest speaker. She gave a flower arrangement demonstration and points on how to arrange flowers for the annual flower show.

Mrs. R. G. Lichtenstein, chairman of the flower show, gave the show schedule and showed examples of horticulture specimens and arrangements by Mrs.

Allan Brooks, Mrs. J. Ward Long, Mrs. Holland McSwain, and Miss Laura M. Jones.

Following the program, refreshments were served during the social hour.

Approximately 50 members and guests were present.

V. L. Jones Succumbs July 7 In Arkansas

News has been received here of the death of Dr. Virgil L. Jones on July 7 in Fayetteville, Ark.

Dr. Jones, a retired English professor, was the husband of the former Miss Isabell Elias, a former resident of Franklin. Dr. and Mrs. Jones had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in June.

Dr. Jones, 80, was a member of the faculty of the University of Arkansas from 1911 to 1940, when he took emeritus rank as dean of the college of arts and sciences. A Phi Beta Kappa, editor of "Selected Poems of Wordsworth", and a Shakespeare scholar, he held degrees from several colleges. He taught in Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, Texas, and Minnesota before going to Arkansas.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones were married in Franklin on June 20, 1905.

He had been in ill health for some time prior to his death.
