PERSONNEL CHANGES ARE LISTED

Cabe Sent To Highland District; Scott Gets Wayah Post Full-Time

Personnel shifts in the Wayah District of the Nantahalas were announced this week by Ranger W. L. Nothstein.

Forestry Aide Tommy L. Cabe, of Otto, has been transferred to the Highland District. Edwin Woodrow Shope, fire control aide, has been reassigned to the post vacated by Mr. Cabe. Shope, fire control aide, has been reassigned to the post vacated by Mr. Cabe.

George D. Scott, construction and maintenance supervisor, has been assigned to the Wayah District full-time, the ranger reported. Previously he has divided his time between Wayah and Highland. In addition, he has taken over Mr. Shope's old fire control duties. His new title is fire control aide.

Center Is Host To Bryson City; Court Is Open

The Franklin Youth Center was host to the Bryson City Youth Center Wednesday of last week for softball and baseball games.

Both games were won by Bryson City by scores of 10 to 5.

Work on the tennis court at the athletic field was completed Friday and may be reserved for use by the public, according to Coach Howard Barnwell, who has charge of the summer recreation program. Lights have been installed for night play, he said. A fee of 50 cents per hour will be charged for the court during the day and $1 at night. New tennis balls may be purchased from Mr. Barnwell. The court has been lined off on the asphalt basketball strip.

Tomorrow (Friday), the local youth center will send softball and baseball teams to Bryson City for games. Softball will be at 1:30 and baseball at 3.
