GARDEN TOUR SET FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Broken Into Two Groups; Includes Trip Up Whiteside

Final arrangements have been made for the Highlands Garden Club's garden tour Friday and Saturday.

The tour is to be broken into two groups, Tour A and Tour B, in order to give a more comprehensive view of estates and gardens in the area. Both tours will leave Highlands Inn from 10 to 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 to 3 p. m. each day.

A free trip up Whiteside Mountain is included in the $2 admission.

The club's annual flower show is scheduled later in the month.

Athletic Group Sponsors Talent Show Saturday

The Highlands Athletic Association sponsored the Claude Casey talent show at the Highlands School auditorium on Saturday evening.

Approximately 150 attended and the association netted $35 from the event.

The proceeds will go to help pay for the recent work at the ball park.

Highlands Leading Anderson When Game Is Called Over Rain

In Sunday's game with the Phoy Lax team from Anderson, S. C., Highlands was in lead with a score of 7 to 0 when the game was called at the end of the third inning because of rain.

On Sunday, August 7, Highlands will play La France, S. C., on the Highlands field. The starting time for the game is 2:30.

Trowbridge Announces Bascom-Louise Purchase

William J. Trowbridge, manager of King's Inn, has announced the purchase of the Bascom-Louise Hotel. The purchase price was not disclosed, but the new owners have acquired the property and began full operation for guests Monday.

The new purchase, immediately adjacent to the present King's Inn property, will approximately double the accommodations for guests, according to Mr. Trowbridge.

The Bascom-Louise Hotel underwent extensive remodeling four years ago, and plans for additional remodeling and improvements to the grounds will be announced in the fall, he said.

Shope Buys Bull From A. B. Slagle

Jess Shope, of Franklin, Route 1, has purchased the young Guernsey sire, Belmont View Bonwick Jim, from A. B. Slagle, according to the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

This richly-bred bull is out of the well-bred cow, Belmont View Ned's Belinda, that has two production records of 10,138 pounds of milk and 495 pounds of fat, made on three times daily milking for 365 days, as a junior two year-old, and 9,784 pounds of milk and 522 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking for 355 days, as a senior four year-old and met calving requirements. He is sired by Coldspring's B. R. Bozwick.

Sgt. Fred A. Stamey recently was graduated from the 10-week topographic surveying course at the engineer school at Fort Belvoir, Va., the Army Home Town News Center announced this week.

Son of Mrs. Marie A. Stamey, of Franklin, Route 5, the sergeant is a radio operator. He entered the army in April, 1951, and took his basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Club Votes To Give Help With New Highlands Clinic

The new district health officer, Dr. Guy V. Gooding, was the speaker at a meeting of the Highlands Home Demonstration Club Monday evening.

He discussed the establishment of a health clinic in Highlands and the group voted to assist with the project.

The first clinic will be held on Wednesday, August 17, from 2 to 4 p. m. The place for the clinic will be announced later.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Mrs. Warren Wilson, and Mrs. John Miller, was appointed to secure the place for the clinic.

Mrs. J. D. Burnette, Mrs. O. F. Summer, and Mrs. Echol Roland were appointed to a publicity committee for the clinic.

A program on nutrition was given by Mrs. Florence Sherrill, county home agent.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert M. Hart, club president.

Fourteen members were present at the meeting, which was held at the Presbyterian church.
