

Jones' Rites Conducted In Atlanta

Funeral services for Frederick Franklin Jones, Franklin real estate and insurance man, who died August 15 of a heart attack at his Wayah Valley home, were conducted the 17th at the St. Phillips Cathedral in Atlanta, Ga.

Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector of the St. Agnes Episcopal Church here, officiated. Burial was in the West View Cemetery.

Active in his church and community, Mr. Jones, 61, was a former traffic manager of the Southern Freight Association in Atlanta. He came here in April, 1953. He was a member of the St. Agnes church and the Franklin Lions Club. In his church, Mr. Jones served as treasurer and on the missions committee.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Evelyn Arnold, of Atlanta; a son, Frederick Franklin Jones, Jr., also of Atlanta; three daughters, Mrs. Arthur G. French, of Newcastle, Pa., Mrs. Emory M. Downs, and Mrs. Robert Lee Pullen, both of Atlanta; a sister, Mrs. Frank Andrew, of Athens, Ga.; and seven grandchildren.

BETHEL SETS PICNIC MEAL

September 3 Event To Raise Funds For Church Improvements

A fund-raising "picnic supper" is planned September 3 by the Bethel Rural Community Development Organization.

The meal will be from 6:30 to 9 o'clock. No price has been set, but an offering will be taken from the public.

Money raised from the supper is earmarked to finance improvements at the Bethel Methodist Church.

A working at the church is set for September 8 at 7:30 p. m., to lay footings for a new concrete walk and curb. The grounds also are to be cleaned and shrubbery and flowers planted.

Tellico Group Meets; Wilhide Is Entertainer

By CARL MORGAN
(Community Reporter)

The Tellico Rural Community Development Organization held its August meeting at the Sulphur Springs picnic area with Mrs. Faye Cowan, president, presiding.

Norma Jean Childers gave the devotional.

Committee reports were given and approved. It was reported that $21 had been raised and paid for the grading of the parking area at the church.

H. A. Wilhide and his dancing dolls, "Dan and Dinah", entertained.

The next meeting will be held at the picnic area September 16.
