Farm Practices For '56 Selected

Practices to be made available to farmers under the 1956 Agricultural Conservation Program have been selected.

They include establishment of permanent protective cover; additional vegetative cover in crop rotation; liming material on farmland; forest tree planting; permanent pasture or hay improvement; forest improvement; open ditch drainage; tile drainage; and winter cover crop.

These practices were picked at a meeting last week by members of the county A. C. S., F. H. A., extension service, and the A. S. C. fieldman, J. H. Enloe, Jr.
