

GEORGIA BIRD CLUB MEETING SLATED HERE

HIGHLANDS. — Members of the Atlanta (Ga.) Bird Club will gather here over the weekend for a meeting and field trip.
Mrs. Thomas H. Tyson and E. C. Ekdahl are planning the club's activities.
Saturday morning, Mr. Ek-dahl will lead a "bird walk" in search of migratory birds and those that spend the entire year in this area. In the evening, some of the club members will show nature slides they have taken. As a special feature, a number of slides loaned by Mrs. Helen Cwickshank, an outstanding nature photographer, will be shown.

Sunday morning the club members will make a trip to "Tyson Valley" and afterwards will go to the Tyson home, "On the Mountain", for their final session and bird count.
Mrs. Tyson will serve a buffet luncheon.

Methodist School To Open Sunday

The first session of a training school for Christian workers will open Sunday evening at 7:30 at the First Methodist Church.

Sessions also are set for the same hour Monday and Tuesday.

Open to all workers of the 20 Methodist churches in Macon, the school will include a course on "Teaching Children in the Church", with Mrs. G. M. Lockabill, of Asheville, in charge; "Teaching Youth", by Miss Marion Craig, of Salisbury, who is director of youth work for the W. N. C. Conference; "Youth Friendships", by the Rev. R. T. Houts, Jr., pastor of the Highlands church; and "Adult Work in the Church School", by George Rudisill, of Salisbury, director of adult work in this conference.

The sponsors of the school are the participating churches and the Conference Board of Education.

Carson 4-H Club Plans For Party

Plans for a Halloween party were made by the Carson 4-H Club at its October 5 meeting at the community building, according to Geneva Ledbetter, reporter.

Sfc. Britton Back Home From Duty In Germany

After being stationed in Germany for three years with the U. S. Army occupational forces, Sfc. J. C. Britton is spending a 20-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Britton, on Route 3.

Veteran of the Korean War, the Macon County soldier, who is making the service his career, did duty in Heilbronn, Germany, with the 60th Infantry Regiment. He was wounded in Korea in 1950 and wears four battle stars. He had some four and a half year's duty in the Pacific area, including Korea and Japan.

After enlisting in June, 1946, Sfc. Britton received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. State-side he has served briefly at Fort Knox, Ky., and Fort Warden, Wash.

At the end of his leave here, he is to report for duty with an honor guard regiment at Fort Myer, Va.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Cows are being grazed 300 days a year on some North Carolina dairy farms.

Movement of coal on the Great Lakes is big business. The S.S. Ernest T. Weir, for instance, carries 13,700 tons of coal at a time, a tonnage equal to the work of more than 1,500 miners for one day, since the average daily production of miners in the United States is now nine tons per day.
Reports of damage to pipes by bark beetles are becoming more frequent in the north-eastern section of North Carolina.

Saturday (Oct. 15) Our Business Will Be ONE YEAR OLD

In appreciation of the patronage of our loyal customers during the past year, that day we will give one quart of 40c oil with each purchase of 10 gallons or more of gas.
