MUSIC STUDY CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

Mrs. Holland McSwain and Mrs. Howard Barnwell were hostesses to the Franklin Music Study Club last Thursday evening at the former's home on Bidwell Street.

Mrs. Roy M. Biddle, program leader for January, presented the following program:

Paper on German music and three composers Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms, by Mrs. Willard Bell; piano solo, Bach's "Prelude from the English Suite", by Mrs. J. Kovner; two songs, "Come let us to the Bagpipes Sound" from the Peasant Cantata, and "Jesu Joy of Man's Desire", Bach, by Miss Margaret Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. H. W. Cabe; piano solo, "Waltz in A Flat"—Brahms, by Miss Marjorie Moody; and piano solo, "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven, played by Mrs. Kovner. Mrs. Weimar Jones, president, presided.

STEVE BROWN HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY FRIDAY

Mrs. C. S. Brown entertained for her son, Steve, last Friday afternoon on his eighth birthday with a supper and TV party. The birthday cake was decorated with red candles and miniature cowboys on horses. Favors were red bean bags with each guest's name inscribed.

Those present were Miss Nina Howard, Steve's second grade teacher, and Suzanne Reeves, Ruth Nolan, Mary Jamison, Brenda Sue Garrett, Susie Collins, Mary Bolton, Claudia Ragan, Elaine Baldwin, Pat West, Nancy Powell, and Billy Garrison, Tommy Henry, Alton Sutton, Billy Jamison, Danny Garrett, Mark Oldney, and Calvin Finger.

MISS WILMA RENSRAW MARRIES GRADY CORBIN

Miss Wilma Lois Renshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Renshaw, of Atlanta, Ga., and Franklin, became the bride of Grady William Corbin son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Corbin, of Franklin, Route 4, Monday afternoon, January 30th, at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Siler.

Dr. A. Rufus Morgan, Episcopal rector, performed the double-ring ceremony against a background of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and native greens, in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

Mrs. Margaret Cooper, pianist, and Richard Sloan, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white faille street-length gown, fashioned on princess lines, with three-quarter length sleeves and a small stand-up collar embroidered with pearls. Her veil of nylon illusion was attached to a bandeau of lace, embellished with pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and satin streamers. Her only ornament was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Bobbie Burch was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a princess-style dress of pastel pink faille, designed with short sleeves and turned-back cuffs and a small stand-up collar embroidered with pearls. Her headdress was a pearl halo and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Pat Pattillo, former college roommate of the groom, served as best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of grey and black taffeta, and her corsage was of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a dress of navy blue silk and a white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room. The table was covered with a hand-embroidered linen cloth, centered with the wedding cake and lighted tapers in crystal candelabra. Assisting in serving were Miss Mildred Corbin, sister of the groom, Miss Laura Lyle, and Mrs. Roy M. Biddle. Miss Patti Phillips kept the bride's book.

Mrs. Corbin is a graduate of Franklin High School and attended Western Carolina College, Cullowhee. She is now employed at the office of the Macon County superintendent of schools.

Mr. Corbin also is a Franklin High School graduate and attended Western Carolina College. He is now serving with the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.

The couple left for a short wedding trip to Florida. For traveling, the bride chose a grey wool suit with black accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

Misses Bobbie Burch, Patti Phillips, and Mildred Corbin, and Mrs. Allen Siler entertained last Wednesday evening at the Slagle Memorial Building with a miscellaneous shower, as a courtesy to Miss Renshaw.

A bridal motif of green and white was carried out in the refreshments. The table was overlaid with a pale pink cloth, festooned with wedding bells and lillies-of-the-valley. The punch bowl was surrounded with ivy and flanked with candles in silver holders.

Approximately 60 guests called during the evening.

Mrs. Simson To Speak On African Plant

The Franklin Garden Club will hold its February meeting Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Franklin Presbyterian Church annex. Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Holland McSwain, Mrs. Charles Conley, and Mrs. Lester Conley.

Mrs. S. R. Simpson, who recently moved here from Bridgeport, Conn., will speak on African violets and other house plants. Mrs. Simpson was a member of the African Violet Society and the Fairfield County Horticultural Society in Bridgeport and was active in garden club work there.
