Annual Farmers Federation Stockholders' Meeting Slated For Macon On March 9

The annual Farmers Federation stockholders meeting for Macon County will be held Friday, March 9, beginning at 10 a. m., in the Franklin store, it has been announced by James McClure Clarke, Federation executive vice-president.

The Franklin store committee will be up for re-election at this time, and new members may be added to the committee.

One county director will be nominated and voted upon at the annual meeting of all Farmers Federation stockholders scheduled for the Buncombe County Court-house in Asheville on March 24. Each county in the Farmers Federation territory is represented by two county directors who serve two year terms with one of the directors up for re-election each year. Business reports will be given by Farmers Federation officials.

Music will be furnished by "Panhandle Pete" and the Farmers Federation String Band during the meeting and free baby chicks will be given as door prizes. Interesting and helpful talks on farming will be given by extension personnel, Federation officials, and other farming authorities. All stockholders, patrons, and persons interested in the Farmers Federation and its many programs are invited to attend the meeting.

Now serving as Macon County directors are Mrs. Carl Slagle, of Franklin, and Jack Cabe, of Franklin, Route 4.

Members on the Franklin store committee are E. V. Ammons, Franklin; Billie Barnard, Route 3; Robert Bennett, Route 3; Edwin J. Bradley, Route 3; Ed Byrd, Styles; Jack Cabe, Route 4; R. C. ### CONLEYS ARE HONORED ON 50th ANNIVERSARY

The children of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Conley held open house for the couple at their home on Iotla Street on Sunday, February 19, in observance of the Conley's 50th wedding anniversary.

The house was decorated throughout with yellow carnations, gladioli, chrysanthemums, snapdragons, and red roses. The dining table was overlaid with an imported linen, hand embroidered banquet cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Miss Bobbie Conley, of Meredith College, Raleigh, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conley, was in charge of the guest book. Another granddaughter, Mrs. George Stevens, poured coffee. Mrs. Roy Pendergrass, Mrs. R. L. Jones, Mrs. L. B. Buie, and Mrs. Clyde Gailey assisted in serving the approximately 100 guests who called during the afternoon.

Out-of-town guests who were here for the occasion were Mrs. Robert Vedder, of Arcanum, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. John Conley, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. Joe Myers, of Greensboro, Md.; Miss Naomi Myers, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clontz, and Robert Clontz, all of Canton; Mrs. Roy Orr and children, Eva Ann and Tommy, and Mrs. Sue Curtis McCall, all of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crump, of Cullowhee, H. E. Stevens and George Stevens, both of Athens, Ga.; Misses Lillian and Virginia Messer, Ruth Dowling, Eunice Catledge, and Nell Funderburke, all of Atlanta, Ga.

All of Mr. and Mrs. Conley's children and grandchildren were present.
