

G. H. BRENDLE PASSES HERE

Swain Native Was 83;
Farmed At Iotla;
Rites Held Saturday

George Henry Brendle, Swain County native and long-time resident of this county, died March 15 at Angel Hospital at the age of 83. He had been ill a short time.

Funeral services for Mr. Brendle, who farmed in the Iotla community, were conducted Saturday at 11 a. m., at the Iotla Baptist Church, of which he was a member. Officiating were the Rev. Manuel Wyatt and the Rev. Frank Reed. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born January 11, 1872, Mr. Brendle was the son of William and Mrs. Jane Brendle. He came to this county in early manhood. Mr. Brendle was twice married.
