Highlands Garden Women Elect Officers At Meeting

HIGHLANDS.—Highlands Garden Club has elected officers for the new year.

They are Mrs. J. Manson Valentine, president; Miss Blanche Davenport, vice-president; Miss Dorothea Harbison, recording secretary; Mrs. Helen Lounsbury, corresponding secretary; and Miss Gertrude Harbison, treasurer.

At the club's April 19 meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Tyson, guest speaker was Pat Int-Hout, ranger of the Highlands District. He used color slides to illustrate his lecture on destroying trees with no market value to make room for more desirable grades. He also told of the damage the white pine beetle has done in this area and the methods of extermination being used.

The ranger used slides to show progress on the new road into Blue Valley, which will make a new picnic ground accessible to the public in the near future.

Among projects discussed at the meeting was a silver tea, to be given at the Flat Mountain home of Mrs. A. T. Carter on June 21, for the benefit of the Elizabethan Gardens.

It was suggested that a committee be appointed for the purpose of maintaining the upkeep of projects undertaken last year for the continued beautification of Highlands.

Tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Tyson, who was assisted by Mrs. Mel Keener and Mrs. Gordon Burriss.

The next club meeting will be May 17.

Mrs. Clark Is Honored On 68th Birthday Here

Mrs. J. L. Clark was honored on her 68th birthday with a dinner last Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Bryson, of Franklin, Route 5.

Seven of Mrs. Clark's eight children were present, and more than 35 friends and relatives.
