THE CHURCH POINTS THE WAY

Thousands of columns have been published in American newspapers about Juvenile Delinquency. Investigations have been held in scores of cities, and many witnesses have been called in an effort to find the cause and the cure.

In all this sudden excitement little has been said about the lack of religion in the homes and hearts of these thousands of unfortunate youths. Far too much emphasis has been placed on inadequate play facilities, too little discipline, too few policemen, etc.

Juvenile Delinquency is primarily a moral and religious problem. Neither jail nor playground, as necessary as they are, will do much to foster love, goodwill, self-respect and charity in the heart of a person. The development of love and charity in the life of a youth needs constant day by day cultivation. But how can a parent properly train a child if that parent has had no religious or spiritual training or background and lives a selfish and faithless life? How can a parent teach a youth the fundamental spiritual values if that parent does not even attempt to live an exemplary life and does not admit his or her dependence upon God, our creator?

Down through the ages the Church has been the bulwark against crime, sin and evil. Those who would solve the problem of delinquency in young or old should seek the way of the Church, for those who need spiritual healing should seek spiritual treatment. The Church stands ready to help parent and youth alike.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
