Swafford's Sayin's

Just keep coming, folks — the more the merrier. I'll try to have more stuff for this week-end. Sorry, I ran out of some things last Saturday, but I didn't know so many folks were coming to my little old store. Some waited on me — some waited on themselves — I waited on others. I hope all left happy and will come again. I shored am glad to see you come.

Some of my customers like to try new recipes. The other day a fellow gave me one that he had heard over the radio. He said two people tried to give it at the same time — must be good — try it. With hands on hips, place one cup of flour on your head, bend knees and add one cup shortening then turn toes out: mix in one cup of milk, repeat ten times. Breathe slowly one teaspoon soda, lower legs and mash three soft boiled eggs on each knee. Let breath out and mix in a bowl. Lie flat on the floor and forward until it comes to a boil. In five minutes remove from the stove and rub briskly with a towel covered with melted butter. Breathe naturally, dress in warm clothes and serve with celery soup or lotion and cream. If you need any of the stuff to make this cap-pud — well, whatever it is — I sell it. I shored am glad, now, that I didn't get in on that stamp racket, 'cause I notice in a paper where the Federal Trade Commission has begun an investigation of the trading stamp business. That's too much like something that's not like my business anyway.

Thanks a lot — hurry back.
