There's More Than Mermon To Ramsey's Appearance At Cowee

There'll be more than just a sermon behind the appearance Sunday at the Cowee Baptist Church of the Rev. Harry Ramsey, Jr., of Williamson, W. Va.

One hundred and twenty-eight years ago, Mr. Ramsey's great-great-grandfather, Humphrey Posey, organized the Cowee church.

On learning Mr. Ramsey planned to be here Sunday for the 90th birthday of his grandmother, Mrs. Textie Ramsey, the congregation of the church decided it would be highly appropriate for him to preach.

He will deliver the 11 a. m. sermon at the Iotia Baptist Church and will preach at Cowee at 8 p. m.

Mr. Ramsey is pastor of the Delbarton Baptist Church.

MINERAL RIGHTS EXCLUDED, BUT — The chances of any mining on this attractive 22-acre property, are extremely remote. It is located high on a knoll and just outside of town. The new white house has five rooms and bath (with one room not quite finished), fine new oil floor-furnace with thermostat control, two porches, nice cellar and—a glorious view of the distant high-tops. (TV reception should be tops!) There is also a large detached garage, good small barn with crib, small chicken house, tool shed, and a fine spring with reservoir and electric pump. It has a fine acre-garden, small fenced pasture and well timbered woodland. This picturesque property, completely furnished and equipped, is Really Priced To Sell — at only $8850! Ideal for use as a summer home or for year-round living, this property will compare favorably with properties being held at $12,000 to $13,000. It's a Honey of a Buy!

In Rural Hall —

Miss Guy Marries Cletus Long

Miss Dorothy Guy, of Winston-Salem, formerly of Franklin, was married August 18 to Cletus R. Long, of Winston-Salem, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Matlock, in Rural Hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Furman Guy, of Franklin. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey R. Long, of Winston-Salem.

The Rev. Vernon E. Dactwyler performed the double-ring ceremony before an improvised altar of palms and arrangements of white gladioli, flanked with candelabra.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown fashioned with lace basque and scalloped neckline, bouffant tulle skirt with applique lace. Her headdress was a half hat of matching lace. She carried a white Bible covered with pearls, topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Long is a graduate of
