

IS IN JAPAN

Sgt. Jack J. Hoglen is now serving with the first Marine Aircraft Wing, based at the U. S. Naval Air Station at Atsugi, Japan. He is the son of Mrs. E. B. Hoglen, of Franklin.

State College specialists suggest avoiding heavy dosages of insecticides and fungicides on edible crops. Follow directions carefully, and never apply more than is recommended.

★ 100 ACRE FARM ★
Beautifully located and only 5.7 miles from the Court House. The attractive two-story house is five years old. It has an abundant supply of fine gravity spring water, living room with attractive rock fireplace, dining room, kitchen, four bedrooms, bath, two porches and storage-utility room. The old barn and outbuildings are not much, but the land is beautiful. It runs from a mountain-top down through a lovely valley, and up the other side to US 23-441 (with some gorgeous building sites off the highway). Watauga Creek flows through the property for about ¼ mile. There are about 10 acres of good bottomland, 30 acres improved pasture, and the balance is well-timbered woodland (hardwood and locust). This fine property would be a good sound buy at $20,000, but, the owner is anxious to sell, and I can deliver it at a low-down price of only $15,000. This is really worth looking into!
