

Dessert Made Ahead Of Time Is 'The Ticket'

A luscious dessert that needs to be made a day ahead is just the ticket for week-end company. The meringue shell for this "Angel Melba Pie" softens on standing overnight in the refrigerator so it's easy to serve, and it literally melts in your mouth.

Juicy, golden canned cling peach slices with a glaze of raspberries fills it deliciously! If you want to use fresh instead of frozen raspberries, all you need to do is add more sugar to taste.

ANGEL MELBA PIE

Shell:
3 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
3/4 cup sugar
Filling:
2 cups canned cling peach slices
Glaze:

3/4 cup frozen raspberries (with syrup)
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
Shell: Beat egg whites with salt and cream of tartar until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in sugar. Pile lightly into well-greased eight-inch pie plate. Bake at 275 degrees for about one hour and 15 minutes. Cool, then chill overnight in refrigerator.

Filling: Drain peaches thoroughly and arrange in meringue shell.
Glaze: Heat raspberries. Add sugar and cornstarch blended together, and cook and stir until clear and thickened. Cool slightly and pour over peaches. Chill. This recipe serves six hungry people.

Garden Time . . .

By ROBERT SCHMIDT

I have just received a copy of the N. C. State Fair catalog which reminds me that many community and county fairs will be held during the next six weeks.

Every gardener should take an interest in the local fair and also the state fair. If you have anything worth exhibiting, you should take pride in showing it. How many times have you stood in front of a prize winning flower, vegetable, or fruit at a fair and said, either to those with you or to yourself, "I've got a better one than that at home in the garden right now."

You may be absolutely right. Only, having it winning a blue ribbon on the show table and having it growing in the garden are two entirely different things. The point is to get it from the garden to the show table and still have it good enough to win over the other entries.

Before you enter an exhibit, read over carefully the instructions in the catalog. Be sure to enter the exhibit in the proper class. Have it properly labeled. If the class calls for a plate of 12 specimens be sure that you have twelve — no more and no less.

In vegetable exhibits, specimens should be of best marketable size except where the catalog calls for the "largest," as in the case of pumpkin. Where the class calls for a plate, tray, peck, or bushel, the individual specimens should be as nearly alike in size, shape and color as possible, and they should be free from blemishes and have the true characteristics of that particular variety. Potatoes need not be washed unless it will improve their appearance. However, if not washed they should be brushed with a soft brush or cloth.

Flower exhibits call for perfection. Good stems, healthy foliage, and a perfect bloom are essential. It is important to have flowers in good condition at the time of judging. A rose bloom should be from one-half to three-fourths open — a tight bud will not be considered by judges.

Fruits, such as apples and pears, should have true varietal characteristics, should be well colored and not over-ripe. They should be free from disease and insect damage. Stems must not be removed from apples and pears. All specimens in a plate or tray should be uniform in size, shape, and color.

They don't come any smarter—

OR GO ANY SWEETER!

Why spend the extra dollars for a higher priced car? Chevy's smart as they come with its stylish Body by Fisher — and it's a beautiful thing to handle!

In truth, there's been a quiet revolution in the automotive world. Higher priced cars used to provide much more in space, ride, and handling. But no longer. Chevy offers all the luxury, all the performance, all the space you've always hoped for — and better roadability besides! Come in, first chance you get, and let a new Chevrolet show you what we mean.

America's largest selling car — 2 million more owners than any other make!
