J. H. MORGAN SUCCUMBS AT NANTAHALA

Macon Native Was 56; Services Held Monday At Union Hill Church

A native of this county, Julius H. Morgan, died Sunday about noon at his home in the Nantahala section. Fifty-six years old, he had been in declining health for several years.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 Monday at the Union Hill Baptist Church, of which he was a member. The Rev. Glen Dills officiated and burial was in the church cemetery.

A farmer, Mr. Morgan was the son of the late Andrew and Mrs. Addie Prince Morgan. He was born September 22, 1899. In 1923 he was married to Miss Evla, Dills, who survives.

Other survivors include four sons, Doyle and Andy, of Nantahala, and Don and Ray, of High Point; six daughters, Mrs. Christine Mason, Mrs. Carmel Cope, and Misses Reva, Juanita, and Angela Morgan, all of Nantahala, and Mrs. Faye Selby, of Detroit, Mich.; two brothers, Garland Morgan, of High Point, and Leonard Morgan, of Jamestown; two sisters, Mrs. Eula Passmore, of Nantahala, and Mrs. Margaret Mason, of Topton; and 11 grandchildren.

Palbearers were Hershel Mason, Ben Morgan, Oscar Passmore, Avery Dills, Clint, Grant, and R. L. Cope.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Fun for All

and calorie counting for some

Flavorful vegetable beef soup is low in calories and has good food value. Serve it with saltines, cottage cheese salad, diet-pack apricots and a glass of skim milk for a streamlining lunch of 450 calories.

It's easier for the cook if one menu can serve everyone.

With soup as the crux of the meal, there's no problem. A typical menu may include vegetable beef soup and a cottage cheese salad (adding pineapple and mayonnaise to Junior's).

To go with the soup and salad have peanut butter and bacon sandwiches for the athlete . . . saltines for the "slimmers". For dessert, serve diet-pack apricots to the calorie-counters, and chocolate cake to the others.

MENUS

Low Calorie for Mom (approximately 450 calories)
Vegetable Beef Soup
Saltines (3 to 5)
Cottage Cheese and Green Pepper Salad
Diet-pack Apricots
Skim Milk

High Calorie for Junior (approximately 1300 calories)
Vegetable Beef Soup
Peanut Butter and Bacon Sandwiches
Apricot and Cottage Cheese Salad with Mayonnaise
Chocolate Cake
Whole Milk

Today with the many kinds of condensed soups available, and numerous sandwiches and salads to choose from, the job of fitting menus to family needs is an easier one . . . tastewise, weightwise, and nutritionwise.

Heart Attack Claims Life Of S-Sgt. Wilkie

A heart attack in Milford, Del., on September 10 claimed the life of S/Sgt. William Walden Wilkie, a former Franklin resident. He was serving in the U. S. Air Force at Dover Air Force Base.

Funeral services for S/Sgt. Wilkie, 37, were conducted on the 15th at the First Baptist Church here by the Rev. M. W. Chapman, the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, and the Rev. S. B. Moss. Graveside military honors were accorded S/Sgt. Wilkie by a detachment of men from Donaldson Air Force Base in Greenville, S. C. Prior to the shipment of the body here, memorial services were conducted on the 13th at Dover.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkie, he was graduated in 1939 from Franklin High School, where he lettered in football. On graduating, he enlisted in the U. S. Navy, serving as a flight engineer in the Pacific theatre during World War II. He was discharged in 1946, but was recalled to active duty in 1950 and at that time entered the U. S. Air Force. While stationed in London, England, from 1950-1953, he met and married Miss Elsie May, a native of Liverpool, England.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four daughters, Carol, Dorothy, Diane, and Rosalyn; two brothers, Henry and Howard Wilkie; and three sisters, Miss Flora Wilkie, Mrs. G. C. Ensley, and Mrs. A. R. Walden.
