

Pvt. Morgan Ends Teletypewriter Repair Course

Pvt. Fred A. Morgan, son of Mrs. Richard Bingham, of Franklin, Route 1, recently completed the teletypewriter equipment repair course at the U. S. Army's Southeastern Signal School at Fort Gordon, Ga.

The 18-week course trained him to service and repair teletype sets and their accessories, according to an Army Home Town News Center announcement.

Pvt. Morgan worked for the Spartanburg (S. C.) Transfer Company before entering the army in March, 1956. He took his basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Wood-using industries are found in every one of North Carolina's 100 counties.

Wagner Program Features Music Study Club Meeting

A Wagner program featured the meeting of the Franklin Music Study Club last Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. C. Kingsbery on White Oak Street. Co-hostess was Miss Laura M. Jones.

Mrs. Allen Siler, program leader for November, presented the following program:

"Praise to the Lord", with music from the Grand March of Wagner's Tannhauser, arranged by Ellen Jane Lorentz (Mrs. James Porter), sung by members of the Franklin Methodist Church choir Mrs. Charles W. Gidney, Mrs. David R. Koontz, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Sloan, Misses Edith Christy, Laura Mae Cabe, Joan Thomas, and Jim Tysinger, under the direction of Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, and accompanied by Mrs. Jones; Paper on Wagner and his music, by Mrs. Grover Schafer; vocal solo, "Dreams", by Wagner, sung in English by Mrs. Charles Shields, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Cooper; piano solo, "O Sublime Sweet Evening Star", from Wagner's Tannhauser, played by Mrs. Weimar Jones; "Pilgrim's Chorus", from Wagner's Tannhauser, sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. Holland McSwain, Mrs. W. V. Rucker, Willard Bell, and Robert E. Workman, under the direction of Mrs. Cooper, and accompanied by her.

Mrs. Weimar Jones, president, presided at a short business session, and welcomed the several guests present.

C. R. Stewart Is Promoted In Germany

Charles R. Stewart, husband of Mrs. Claudia Stewart, of Franklin, recently was promoted to specialist third class while serving with the 11th Airborne Division in Germany, according to the Army Home Town News Center.

A gunner in Company I of the division's 511th Infantry Regiment, he entered the army in March, 1955, and took his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. His mother is Mrs. Clara Stewart.

Pfc. Stewart's Unit Trains At Baltic Range

Pfc. Avery Stewart, son of Mrs. Clara Stewart, of Franklin, recently completed three weeks of firing at towed targets with his unit, the 443rd Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion, at NATO's Baltic Sea range in Germany.

The 75 millimeter "Skysweeper" gun battalion received both combat and proficiency tests in its semi-annual trip to the range, according to the announcement from the Army Home Town News Center.

Pfc. Stewart is a cook in the battalion's Battery B. He entered the army last February and arrived in Europe in July of this year.

Mrs. Moses Is President Of H. D. Club

Higdonville Home Demonstration Club elected new officers for the year at a meeting Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. Lillie Crawford.

They are Mrs. Harry Moses, president; Mrs. Fred Corbin, vice-president; Mrs. Ted Higdon, secretary; and Mrs. Sidney Clay, treasurer.

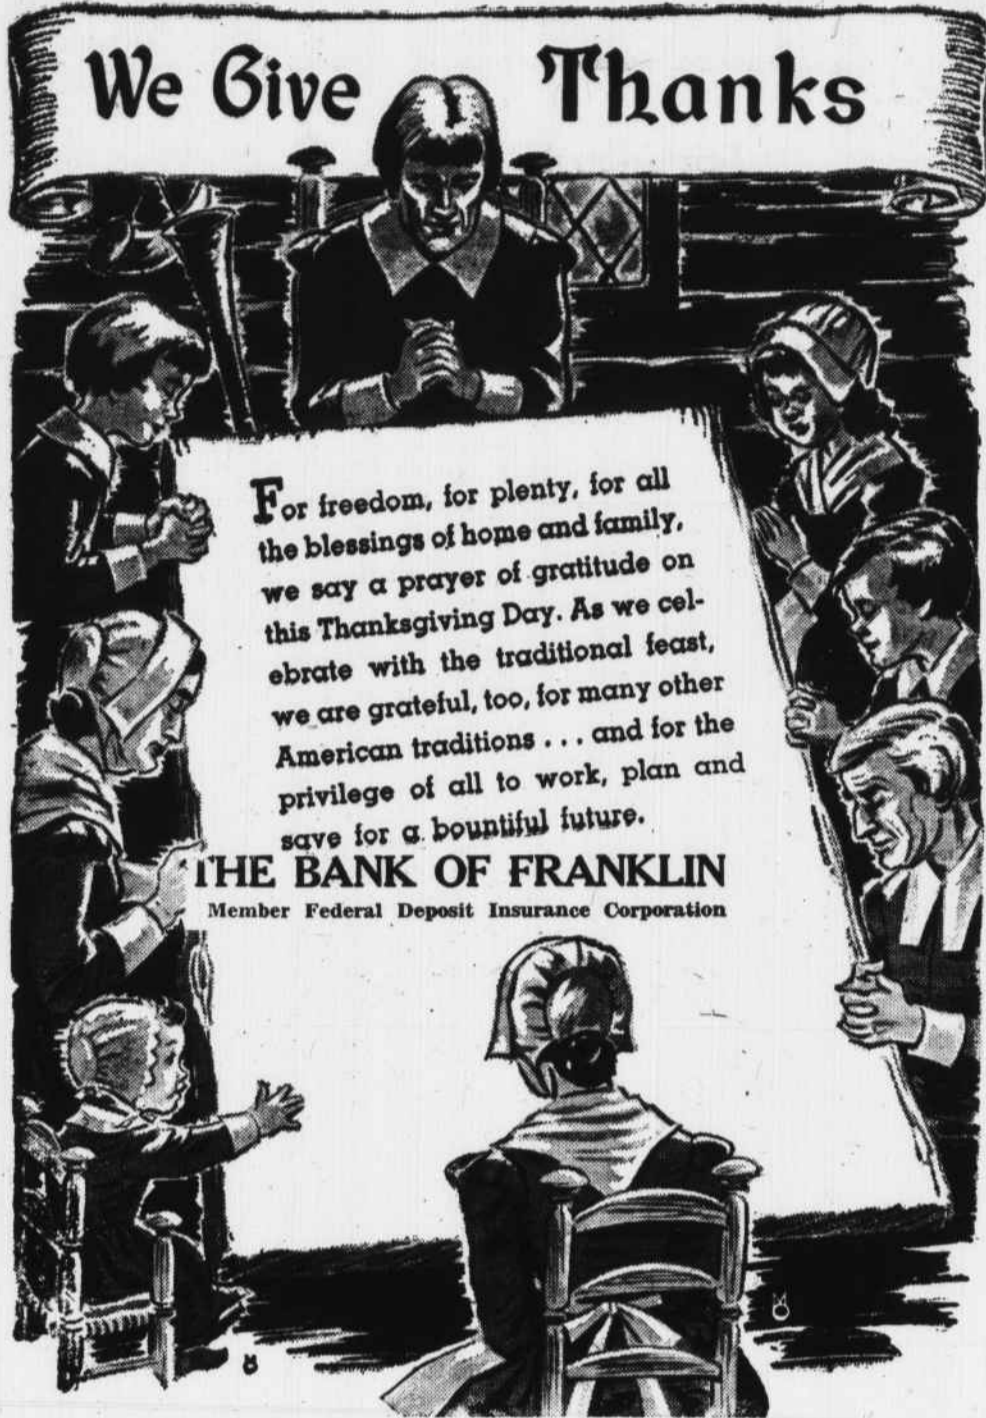

The club project leaders and the committee chairman will be elected at the next meeting.

Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, county home agent, gave a demonstration on "New Fabrics for Your Home" and distributed pamphlets on "Quick Candies".

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Pete Price.

The next meeting will be December 17 at the home of Mrs. A. D. Carter. An all-day meeting is planned, featured by a Christmas program with a covered dish dinner.

In the current market economy, farm families and firms are making the most income progress where production is planned around market needs and desires of buyers, says C. P. Libeau, poultry and egg marketing specialist for the North Carolina Extension Service.

For freedom, for plenty, for all the blessings of home and family, we say a prayer of gratitude on this Thanksgiving Day. As we celebrate with the traditional feast, we are grateful, too, for many other American traditions . . . and for the privilege of all to work, plan and save for a bountiful future.

Swafford's Sayin's

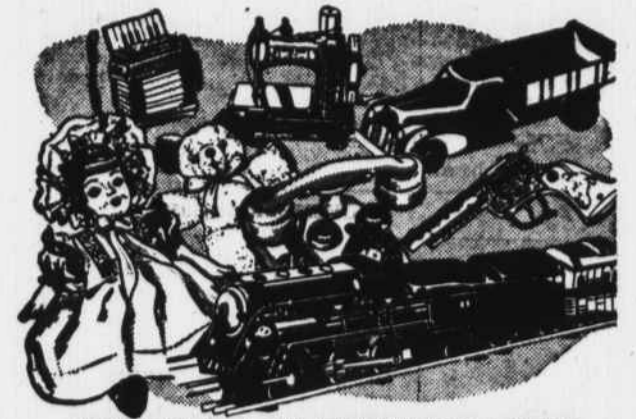

I've been accused of worrying too much over things that don't happen. I know that I make mistakes, and am afraid that customers will blow their top and quit coming to see me, but I'm thankful for all who have been so considerate—we correct a mistake and go on as usual.

Many things could have happened—but didn't. I stepped on a garden rake (in the dark)—the handle didn't crack my head. My car didn't go over the bank when I put it in second gear instead of reverse. The wrong medicine taken for a headache wasn't poison. I didn't blister all over when I turned on hot water instead of cold (under shower already too hot). On and on—things could have happened but didn't.

Don't you think—during this Thanksgiving season—that we should be just as thankful for the things that could have happened—and didn't—as for all the many good things we have enjoyed? We can never know how many times the "Invisible Hand" has kept us from harm and danger—while we looked upon the many visible blessings. Let us be truly thankful for all—both seen and unseen to us.
