Garden Club Will Sponsor Yule Contest

HIGHLANDS. — Highlands Garden Club will again sponsor a Christmas decorations contest.
According to Mrs. L. G. Misener, publicity chairman, judging of Highlands homes will be done the night of Dec. 21.
The club is offering a $10 prize to the home with the best decorations visible from the outside.
Residents wanting to enter the contest are asked to register their homes with Mrs. Frank B. Cook, co-chairman of the contest, or with Mrs. C. E. Mitchell.

FRB's Interest Ruling Won't Affect Bank Here

The Bank of Franklin will not be affected by last week's Federal Reserve Board's ruling authorizing banks to pay up to 3 per cent on savings deposits.
Frank B. Duncan, the bank's president, explained the ruling is for the benefit of banks in the larger cities, where competition is keen for money. He added that, when interest rates on savings go up, so must the rate charged by banks on loans. In the larger cities, he said, the demand for money makes both possible.
The local bank pays 2 per cent on savings. It increased the rate about a year ago, from 1 1/2 to 2 per cent.

Yule Candle Service Slated At Highlands Presbyterian Church

HIGHLANDS. — A Christmas candle lighting service will be held at the Highlands First Presbyterian Church Sunday at 5 p. m.
Mrs. O. F. Summer will direct the program of Christmas music.

used for growth and expansion of the company. This, again in theory, will give the people of North Carolina more money to spend, even if the taxes on their everyday needs are higher.
There are, I think, three objections to this plan. When the members of the legislature begin to weigh the good against the bad, I hope they will take the following into consideration:

First, the proposed tax changes do nothing to help the farmer except attempt to induce him to quit farming and go get a job working in a mill. To be good government policy, this is too similar to the theory that we should just "plow under" all the sub-marginal farmers rather than try to improve their lot. Perhaps there is more money to be made in working in the mills, but the small farm as a way of life has much to be said for it that cannot be measured in dollars. I hate to see us lose it.

Second, the government employees, state or federal, and many other salaried workers will not benefit from expansion of industry, but they are going to be asked to carry an increase in the state tax burden.

Third, I am not sure there is a guarantee that the increased capital that companies will be allowed to accumulate because of less taxes will, in all cases, be used to provide more jobs and income for their employees.
