Rites For Wreck
Victim Anderson
Held Tuesday

Jason Fredrick Anderson, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson, of Otto, was killed Jan. 8 in Sedro-Woolley, Wash., when his automobile skidded on ice and collided with a power pole.

Funeral services for the youth were conducted at the Coweta Baptist Church here Tuesday at 11 a. m. by the Rev. Lee Crawford and the Rev. Claude Ledford.

Serving as pallbearers were Melvin Holden, Jackie Pruitt, Eugene Haire, John Henry Hyatt, Robert Bell, and Carl Tallent, Jr.

In addition to the parents, surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Dave Chastain, Mrs. Bennie B. Haire, and Mrs. Joe Moore, all of Dillard, Ga., Route 1, Mrs. Walter Hardison, of Araphoe, and Mrs. John Beeman, of Pontiac, Mich., and three brothers, Joe Anderson, of Dillard, Ga., Route 1, Robert Anderson, of Madison Heights, Mich., and Dean Anderson, of Otto.

Arrangements were handled by Potts Funeral Home.

U. S. Department of Agriculture studies show that farmers in general seem willing to spend money and time to fertilize such crops as vegetables, while they virtually neglect hay, pasture, and cover crops.

SPEAKS TONIGHT

WILLIAM (BILL) FRIDAY

President Friday, of the Consolidated University of North Carolina, will address a dinner meeting of U. N. C. alumni from four counties in Waynesville tonight (Thursday). A number of Macon County alumni of the three branches of the University, with their wives and husbands, are expected to attend. The dinner is set for 6:30 o'clock at the Central Elementary School.

Danger To Bees

Beekeepers in some areas of the southern states are alarmed as a result of the indiscreet use of insecticides, says W. A. Stephen, extension beekeeper at State College. While these areas are not extensive as yet, he warns that it is possible that new, specific insecticides, or the return to the use of arsenicals, or more intensive application of currently employed poisons may become widespread hazards for honeybees.

Miss Potts,
Seamstress,
Dies Here

Miss Sarah Elizabeth "Bessie" Potts, well-known Franklin seamstress and housekeeper, died Monday at 8:40 p. m., two days before her 73rd birthday.

A native of this county, she succumbed at Angel Hospital following an illness of a week.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday (Wednesday), her birthday, at the First Baptist Church at 2 p. m. Officiating were the Rev. M. W. Chapman, the Rev. S. B. Moss, and the Rev. Doyle Miller. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Daughter of James Henry and Mrs. Susan Morrison Potts, she was born Jan. 16, 1884. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are two brothers, Charlie Potts and Lawrence Potts, both of Franklin, and a sister, Mrs. Arvil Swafford, of Franklin, Route 3.

Pallbearers were Homer Mashburn, Lee Poindexter, Tom Johnston, John Clark, Kenneth Neal, and Jack Cabe.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

'Young Man' Banquet
Slated Feb. 20 Here

The annual banquet honoring "Macon County's Young Man of the Year", which generally is held in January, is slated for Feb. 20 this year.

Dr. J. L. Hill, Jr., president of the Franklin Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the banquet and award, this week explained the February date was the only time the Jaycee state president could come here as guest speaker. It has been a standing policy of the local Jaycees to obtain the state president as guest speaker at the annual banquet, he added. Bob Cox, of Chapel Hill heads the state Jaycees.

Meanwhile, Dr. Hill said nominations for the young man award are still being received. Any young man of the county who had not turned 36 years of age by the end of 1956 is eligible for nomination. Community service is the basis of selection, Dr. Hill said.
