HAD HAPPY LIFE —
Frank Holland Says There's No Need To Make A Fuss Over His Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Holland

"We've had a happy life together," said Frank Holland this week, "and that's plenty for us. There's no need to make a fuss over our golden wedding anniversary."

Nevertheless, he and Mrs. Holland consented to a picture. It shows them with two things which have meant much to them all their lives: the Bible and flowers.

Mr. Holland felt the call to preach after he was married. He has "pastored" a number of churches over the county and is of the Assembly of God faith. He makes his living farming at the Holland home on Stanfield Branch, in Cullasaja community.

Mrs. Holland is a student of the Bible, too, but says, "I've never done any preaching. I just try to listen." She did, however, for many years teach an adult Sunday School class.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland were married April 28, 1907, at the Watkins homeplace on Nickajack. Mrs. Holland is the former Miss Carrie Jane Watkins. Tom Vinson, a Baptist preacher, married them.

Asked if they took a honeymoon, Mr. Holland said, "Folks didn't have much time or money for a honeymoon in those days. Even if we had, I don't guess it would have worked out too well. You see, it was garden planting time."

Five children were born to the Hollands, four of whom still are living. They are Miss Edna Holland, of the home; Ernest Holland, whose home is up the branch from his parents; Everett Holland, of Pontiac, Mich.; and Mitchell Holland, of Detroit, Mich.
