buildings. It's not good economy to give a teacher or a janitor a job to do unless he has the tools to work with."

By "pestering", Mr. Bueck grinned and said he didn't mean he would be "malicious". "I mean that I'll be trying to get the amount of money I think the schools need."

When Mr. Bueck had finished speaking, Erwin Patton said the new superintendent also was expressing the board of education's views. Mr. Patton is chairman of the board.

Mr. Bueck asked W. E. (Gene) Baldwin, chairman of the commissioners, for his reaction to the proposed increase in maintenance funds. Mr. Baldwin replied:

"I never like to work 30 to 60 days ahead of time like that. We'll talk it over when we sit down to go over the budget."

The commissioners and board of education agreed to work on the school budget at a joint meeting June 3. Mr. Bueck said he would not be here on July 1, the date the budget normally is adopted. He will be attending the Lions Club convention at San Francisco, Calif., starting June 27.

He and Mrs. Bueck plan to Demonstration Clubs Give Library Circulation Desk

A major fixture was added at the Franklin Library when a circulation desk was installed, the gift of Macon County's 20 Home Demonstration Clubs.

The desk, constructed by E. S. Purdom and Company, of Wayah Valley, is made of oak.

A circulation desk is a large, specialized piece of library furniture made to accommodate several patrons at once as well as to provide storage for library cards and a small amount of library materials.

CALLING SPORTSMEN

Sportsmen of Macon County are invited to a meeting May 28 at Sylva with representatives of the Wildlife Resources Commission, at which time the 1957-58 hunting regulations will be discussed. To begin at 7:30 p. m. at the Jackson County courthouse, the meeting is for Wildlife District 9, which includes Macon.

just one more week . . .

The Franklin Press subscription contest among Rural Communities will end next Wednesday, May 15.

This last week will tell the tale.

Some communities are going to win $100 in cash prizes. Will yours be one of the winners? It's up to you . . . it depends on how much work you do this last week.

And remember: You CAN'T lose. Because there's $1 cash commission in it for your community treasury on every new, one-year, in-Macon-County subscription you turn in.

To count, all subscriptions must be in by next Wednesday. If you mail them, be sure your letter is postmarked before midnight May 15.
