J. Q. HEDDEN
DIES SATURDAY IN HOSPITAL

Highlands Carpenter Was 58; Rites Held Monday Afternoon

John Quincy Hedden, the father of Mrs. R. V. Hooper, of Franklin, died Saturday in a Franklin hospital, following a lengthy illness. A Highlands carpenter, he was 58.

Born Dec. 3, 1898, he was the son of Virgil and Mrs. Mary Louraty Thompson Hedden, of Macon County. Mr. Hedden married Miss Selma Howell, of this county, Dec. 22, 1925, who survives.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Masonic Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Highlands Presbyterian Church. Officiating ministers were the Rev. Robert Dupree and the Rev. Ray McClain. Pallbearers were members of the Highlands Masonic lodge.

Surviving, in addition to his wife and daughter, are two brothers, Prelo, of Highlands, and Thomas, of Morgan; two sisters, Mrs. Jim Drossos, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. H. E. Collins, of Wichita Falls, Texas; a half-sister, Mrs. Ever Morgan, of Franklin, Route 4; and two grandchildren.

Flyers Fail To Make Stock Car Races In Darlington Saturday

Two planes from Franklin left for the Darlington, S. C., stock car races last week end, but only one of them got there. And even its pilot failed to see the event.

Going Saturday with Dr. G. R. McSween were James P. (Jim) Wurst and Kenneth Clark. Dr. McSween's plane was forced down by bad weather at Monroe, N. C., and the men never got to their South Carolina destination.

The Rev. Glenn Anderson, flying alone, made it to Darlington. When he got there he was told that rain had caused postponement of the races until Sunday. Flying conditions were so bad he had to leave his plane in South Carolina. He made the trip home Saturday night by bus and automobile.

He went back to South Carolina this week and picked up the plane.

Want To Give Some Chairs?

Franklin's Teen Center, which has been drawing crowds of 50 or more youngsters on Friday nights, is in need of chairs.

The center recently purchased tables but did not have funds for seats. B. B. Scott has offered to go to anyone's house to pick up chairs which will be donated to the center. He may be reached at telephone number 3.

Government's Moonshine Move
No News Here

The U.S. Internal Revenue Service's latest device to thwart moonshine makers—by cutting off the distillers' bulk sugar sources—is not news to Franklin grocers, although it was announced last week end.

Several local grocersmen, all of whom asked not to be identified by name, said revenue agents have been visiting their stores for some time, asking if any large sugar purchases had been made, and if so, to whom.

One grocer said he had never been visited by an agent who identified himself, but thought that a man who was by last week must have been an I.R.S. man. "He asked if I had a 100-pound sack of sugar. He was too well dressed to have any use for a 100-pound sack of sugar."

According to an Associated Press story from Washington, the revenue agency is asking all sugar sellers—retail and wholesale—to refuse to make sales to "suspect persons". This would include people who want unusually large amounts, those who are unknown to the seller, those known as moonshiners, and those who offer premium prices.

Franklin grocers have been asked by revenue agents in past visits to keep a list of people who buy sugar in quantities of 100 pounds or more. The A.P. article said 100 pounds of sugar is required for 100 gallons of mash. This, in turn, will produce 10 to 12 gallons of low-proof but drinkable whiskey, the article continued.
