scholarship; Lyman Bryant, Troop Free Automobile To Operate Here

A free automobile safety inspection lane will operate five as a project to reduce high- east. accidents.

Unlike the state-sponsored inspection lanes of several years ing Dr. J. L. Hill, Jr. ago, it will be entirely voluntary and recommended repairs past state vice-president of Jaycee to automobiles will be left to the discretion of owners.

However, "Safety Checked" windshield stickers will be affixed to those passing the in-spection. Vehicles failing to meet the requirement will be issued stickers after recommendations are met.

A 10-point check of vehicles to be made-brakes, front lights, rear lights, steering, tires, exhaust system, glass, windshield wipers, rear view mirror, and horn.

With daily hours of 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p. m., the safe-ty lane will be in Franklin on West Main Street, near the R.

S. (Dick) Jones home on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday.

For motorists of the High-lands area, the check lane will be set up Thursday (same hours as above) on Main Street in Highlands.

Volunteers from civic and service clubs in the two towns will man the lane. Local motor companies will donate the services of mechanics.

The project, which is sponsored by the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles, is being supervised by C. Jack Ragan, of Franklin, county safety coordinator. Groups assisting with the project include the Franklin Lions Club, Highlands Lions Franklin Rotary Club, Club. Franklin Jaycees, and the Veterans of Foreigh Wars. Mr. Regan said it is hoped that at least 1,000 automobiles can be checked during the week.
