Mailbox Repainting Job Is Planned By Cullasaja

By MISS MARIE JENNINGS (Community Reporter)

Plans were made at the June 4 meeting of the Cullasaja Rural Community Development Organization to repaint the mailbox posts in the community.

It was suggested that each family be responsible for its own post.

Pat Cable, a rural mail carrier, offered some suggestions about the proper heights of the posts to comply with requirements and to make delivery of mail easier on the carrier.

Reads Letter

John Bryson, president, read a letter of congratulations from The Franklin Press and turned over a $60 check to the treasurer for the first and second prizes awarded the community in the newspaper's recent subscription contest.

Mr. Bryson also announced that

Alfred Holland has made an erected a visitor's register at the picnic area and he reported that the clean-up projects at the picnic area and the cemeteries in the community have been completed. Alfred Holland has made and Committees were appointed to area for the next month.

Home Improvements

The following home improvements were reported: George Stanfield has a new power mower; Marion and John Bryson, a new tractor-mower machine; Alfred Holland, a new rotary tiller; Buddy Stanfield, a new hay baler and side delivery rake; John Bryson, a new radio; Vernon Bryson, a television set and a newly-painted porch; Mrs. Dorothy Bowers, a new steam iron and electric frying pan and a newly-painted living room; Mrs. J. L. Clark, newly-painted living room and a new electric hot plate and bean pot; Mr. and Mrs. David Stanfield, a new home freezer; and Mrs. Ed Jennings, a new electric iron.

New Mower

The Cullasaja School has a new power mower and a public address system was recently installed.

The men of the community dug a new garbage pit at the picnic area on June 6.

Discuss Health

The group discussed health improvements in the community and hopes to make this a major project for this year. Members were urged to think of ways to improve health conditions in the community.

It was agreed that the community would help clean the Assembly of God camp grounds in preparation for the summer camp meeting revival.

New Local Talent Variety Program Getting Attention

A new variety show is beginning to attract interest locally.

Composed of all local talent, it is called "Main Street Jamboree" and is staged every Friday night at 8 o'clock at the county courthouse.

Featured on the barn dance program are Mrs. Harry Higgins, organist, the Franklin Sweethearts, a vocal group composed of Misses Myrtis Cabe, Colean Clouse, and Sue Bailey, the Waldroops (Les, Wendell, and Lloyd), Ann Holden, and Carrol Mosteller.

The first show was held May 31. There is no admission charge.
