

MORRISON SUCCUMBS IN TWIN CITY

Macon Native Had Restaurant There;
Survivors Given

Leroy Morrison, 49, a native of Macon County, died in a Winston-Salem hospital Sunday after suffering a stroke Saturday night.

He operated a restaurant and had other business interests in Winston-Salem, where he made his home.

He was the son of Mrs. Margaret Ann Meadows Morrison and the late James M. Morrison of the Oak Grove section. He was a member of Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Surviving in addition to the widow, Mrs. Hazel Adams Morrison, are two sons, Billy and Kelly Joe, and a daughter, Miss Martha Morrison, all of the home; the mother; two sisters, Mrs. Furman Guy of Franklin, Route 3, and Mrs. Charles Matlock, of Winston-Salem; and two grandchildren.

Poor crop stands are often caused by factors other than weather.

Two street-wide banners welcoming visitors to Franklin were erected this week by the chamber of commerce. The one pictured above is across Main Street near the county courthouse. The other is on Palmer Street and indicates the direction of the business district and the chamber of commerce information booth.

Lions Hear About Red Brainwashing

Members of the Franklin Lions Club learned something about the techniques used by the Communists in brainwashing American soldiers in Korea at their regular meeting Monday night.

Guest speaker of the evening was Dr. Cecil W. Mann, psychology professor at Tulane University and Franklin summer resident, and a man well read in this field.

Dr. Mann's topic was "War and Words". He placed special emphasis on the power of words in changing the thoughts and suggestions of a person's mind.

The Reds used this power on a few G. I.'s in Korea, causing them to renounce their country and accept the Communist doctrine.

There's No Hitch In Gettin' Hitched

The register of deeds' office has been busy the last week issuing marriage licenses—but none to people with Macon County addresses.

Three in one week to all-out county couples is something of a record, according to Register Lake V. Shope. At least one of the persons is from Macon County, however, although she now is living in West Asheville.

Getting licenses in the last week were Michael Richard Hein, 19, and Donna Pauline Korn, 18, both of Atlanta; Howell P. Dunlap, 23, of Madison, Route 1, and Georgia Nell McDonald, 22, of West Asheville; and Ronald Howard, 19, of Bryson City, Route 1, and Minnie Geneva Reagan, 18, of Smoke-mont.
