

Another Still Bites Dust

The sheriff's department is still bustin' stills. Latest to feel the weight of the axe was a 35-gallon one located on the head of Ellijay.

Sheriff J. Harry Thomas and his deputy, Newell Pendergrass, demolished the whisky maker last Thursday. No mash, supplies, or operators were on hand, they reported.

The day before, a still was busted on Dick's Creek, in the Nantahala section, by the chief deputy.

(As authorized by the 1951 session of the General Assembly of North Carolina)

([X] VOTE FOR ONE)

For continuing the present program of adding five cents (5¢) per ton to the price of feed and fertilizer for an additional period of three (3) years (beginning January 1, 1958) for supplementing an expanding agricultural research and educational program in North Carolina.

Against continuing the present program of adding five cents (5¢) per ton to the price of feed and fertilizer for an additional period of three (3) years (beginning January 1, 1958) for supplementing an expanding agricultural research and educational program in North Carolina.

KNOW-HOW BALLOT—Here's the ballot feed and fertilizer users will mark on August 23 in the statewide "Nickels for Know-How" referendum. The program helps support more than 50 varied agricultural research and education projects in North Carolina. It costs the average farmer about 30 cents a year.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. CANSLER IN HOSPITAL

Macon Native Was 55; Rites Held Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Mary Leona Hastings Dehart Cansler, 55, of Franklin, died Friday at 6:45 p. m. in a local hospital following an illness of several months.

She was a native and life-long resident of Macon County, born March 15, 1902, to Wymmer and Mrs. Mattie Anne Hastings. She was married in 1917 to Ernest B. Dehart, who died in 1937. In 1946, she married Zeb Cansler, who survives.

Mrs. Cansler was a member of the Franklin Baptist Church and a past president of the Women's Missionary Union. She also had taught Sunday School there. She was a member of the Nequassa Chapter, No. 43, of the Order of the Eastern Star, and a past member of the Franklin Home Demonstration Club.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 3 p. m. at her church with the pastor, the Rev. M. W. Chapman, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan and the Rev. Thad Dowdle. Burial was in Pleasant Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers, all Masons, were H. H. Plemons, Curtis Pearson, Bill Bryant, Prelo Dryman, Oscar Ledford, and J. Ward Long.

Surviving in addition to her husband are four children by her first marriage, Lt. Cmdr. Turner Dehart, of the U.S. Navy, of Washington, D. C.; Doyle Dehart, of Falls Church, Va.; and Kermit Dehart, also of Washington, and Miss Helen Dehart, of Franklin; four grandchildren; two step-sons, Bill and Lewis Cansler, of Franklin; three step-grandchildren; a brother, Freeman Hastings, of Franklin, Route 2; and four sisters, Mrs. Carl Tallent, of Franklin, and Mrs. Howard Ledford, Mrs. William McClure, and Mrs. Woodrow Mason, all of Route 2.
