DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY —

Miss Wilson Weds Gordon Talley

The marriage of Miss Lorene Wilson, daughter of R. W. Wilson, of Fletcher, and Gordon Talley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lenn Talley, of Highlands, was solemnized Sept. 6 at 7 o'clock on the lawn at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Carrie Hepler, near Asheville.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. R. Bartlett, pastor of the Olive Baptist Church. Miss Margaret Kirstein, cousin of the bride, presented the wedding music.

The bride wore a suit of powder blue with white accessories. Her attendants were Miss Louise Moore, Miss Stella Silvers, and Miss Frankie Kirstein, cousin of the bride. Sharon Jenkins was the flower girl.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Charles Talley.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal cake cutting was given in the home of Mrs. Hepler. Mrs. Lewis Talley, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Ted Crunkleton, sister of the groom, served the cake. Mrs. Mary Wilson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Sidney Moore served the punch.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Talley will make their home in Highlands.

TWO ARE HONORED AT SHOWER EVENT

A joint miscellaneous shower was held last Thursday afternoon at the Cartoogechay Community Building honoring Miss Mary Johnson, bride-elect of Prelo Crawford, and Mrs. Hoyt Brookshire, the former Miss Hazel Vinson.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. W. N. Dalrymple, Mrs. Clifford Dalrymple, Mrs. Kenneth Crawford, Mrs. Wayne Harrison, Mrs. Cecil Parker and Mrs. Mack Neely.

Pink and white flowers were used to carry out the color scheme. Refreshments of punch and bridal cakes were served to approximately 30 guests who called.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brooks have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Ruth Brooks, to James Sessions, of Conway, S. C.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized in Conyers, Ga., on Aug. 23, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Sessions is a graduate of the Franklin High School, Class of '56, and for the past year has been employed by the Bell Telephone Company in Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Sessions is a graduate of the Conway High School and also is employed in Atlanta.

The couple is now residing at 537 Greenwood Avenue, N. E., Atlanta.

SUNDAY AT UNION —

Miss Johnson Weds Prelo Crawford

Miss Mary Johnson, daughter of Homer Johnson and the late Mrs. Johnson, and Prelo Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Crawford were married Sunday, Sept. 8, at the Union Methodist Church.

The Rev. Glenn Anderson officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Hoyt Bryson, pianist, and Kenneth Crawford, vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Robert Parker, wore a ballerina-length dress of chantilly lace over taffeta with a scalloped neckline and fitted bodice. Her fingertip veil was attached to a head-dress of matching lace and she carried a prayer book with a white orchid.

Miss Beatrice Johnson, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and wore a ballerina length dress of aqua net over taffeta with a matching headdress. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Eugenia Parker, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore white and pink nylon over organza, and carried a basket of pink carnations.

Neal Parker, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

George Crawford was best man and ushers were Bruce and Bert Crawford, all brothers of the bridegroom.

After a wedding trip through parts of the midwest the couple

AT HIGHLANDS CHURCH —

Miss Ramsey Bride Of H. A. Holt, Jr.

Miss Barbara Babcock Ramsey, of Miami, Fla., daughter of Mrs. Charles E. Love, of Miami, and Robert G. Ramsey, of Highlands and Henry A. Holt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Holt, of Highlands, were married Saturday, Sept. 7, at the Methodist Church in Highlands.

The Rev. R. T. Houts, Jr., and the Rev. Gene Little performed the ceremony. The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Earl DeNoon, of Miami, and R. G. Ramsey.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length dress, with bodice of lace and lace inset bands in the tulle skirt. She wore a tiara of lace and a veil, and carried white carnations.

Miss Bonnie Jane Ramsey, of Miami, was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Sandra Jean Beese, of Miami, and Mrs. Martha Tribble, of Atlanta, Ga., were attendants. They all wore ballerina-length dresses of chiffon, with matching satin caps and carried autumn flowers.

The bridegroom had his brother-in-law, Herman Tribble, of Atlanta, Ga., as his best man and groomsmen were Nick Koepf-Baker and Tommy Rucker, both of Highlands.

A reception followed on the church lawn. Mrs. Robert G. Ramsey, stepmother of the bride, was assisted by Mrs. O. W. McConnell, Mrs. R. C. Holt, and Mrs. A. T. Carter.

The couple will attend Western Carolina College in Cullowhee for the school year and then will move to Richmond, Va., where Mr. Holt will be a student at Medical College of Virginia. He is veteran of four years' service in the U. S. Navy.
