SOUTHARD DIES HERE SATURDAY

Macon Native Was 84; Rites Held Monday Afternoon

Tom M. Southard, a native of Macon County and farmer of Franklin, Route 1, died at his home Saturday at 4:30 p. m., following an illness of several months.

Funeral services for Mr. Southard, who was 84, were conducted Monday afternoon at the Maiden's Chapel Methodist Church, of which he was a member. Officiating was the Rev. Earl Crowe, pastor of the West Macon Methodist Circuit, the Rev. S. B. Moss, pastor of the Franklin Methodist Church, and the Rev. Andrew Cloer, pastor of the Cartoogechaye Baptist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Johnny, Gordon, Roy, Dillard, and Ernest Southard, and J. E. Perry, Jr.

Mr. Southard was born March 15, 1873, the son of Wash and Mrs. Sara Ann Mason Southard. In 1896 he was married to Miss Ann Battles, who survives.

Other survivors include three sons, Lester, of Route 1, Frank, of Fletcher; two daughters, Mrs. Glenn Edwards, of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. Quince Roane, of Portland, Ore.; two brothers, Bob and Charlie Southard, of Route 1; a sister, Mrs. Edd Battles, of Route 2; nine grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements were handled by Bryant Funeral Home.

ERROR IS NOTED

In an announcement received last week from Pfeiffer College, Miss Birdie Lee Bingham, recipient of a scholarship, was listed as being a sophomore. This was in error. She is a junior.

FORMING 4-H CLUB

Patton Plans For County Fair At 2-In-1 Meeting

By MISS MILDRED BINGHAM (Community Reporter)

Two meetings in one were held Sept. 3 by the Patton Rural Community Development Organization. August and September business was transacted since the former month's meeting was cancelled because of a revival in progress in the community.

Clark Walker, an assistant extension agent, was present to discuss the county fair.

Judd Tallent, Richard Bingham, R. D. Wells, Aaron Hedden, Fred Hannah, Harley Stewart, and General Jones were appointed as a committee to handle arrangements for the fair.

Mr. Walker also talked about organizing a 4-H club in the community. Richard Bingham, Mrs. Harley Stewart, and Mrs. Ted Blaine were appointed as leaders for the club and the young people of the community will meet tonight (Thursday) for their organizational meeting. Mr. Walker and Mrs. Jessie D. Cabe will be on hand to assist them.

Several people from the Patton Community have recently appeared on radio station WFSC as guests. Fred Hannah, of the Soil Conservation Service, had Mrs. Harley Stewart and Mrs. Ted Blaine as guests in a panel discussion on soil conservation and its relationship to community development. They also discussed the primary purposes of community development work, the outstanding improvements that have been made in the community, and the results of being an organized community.

Mrs. Ruth Patton, of the Patton Home Demonstration Club, also was on radio, appearing with Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, home agent, in a discussion on the preparation of food.

DEATH CLAIMS C. T. JONES AT HIS HOME

Farmer And Native Had Been Ill For Several Years

Charlie Thomas Jones, 61-year-old farmer and native of this county, died last Thursday at his home on Franklin, Route 4.

Funeral services for Mr. Jones, who has been ill for the past three and a half years, were conducted Friday afternoon at the Ridgecrest Baptist Church by the Rev. W. A. Cloer and the Rev. Thad Robert Dowdle. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born May 4, 1890, he was the son of Mark and Mrs. Martha Jane Jones. He was a member of the Cowee Baptist Church and on March 31, 1913, was married to Miss Bardie Tippett, of Franklin, who died about two months ago.

Surviving are four sons, Fred, and R. L. Jones, all of Franklin, and Harold Jones, of Belmont; four daughters, Mrs. J. E. Horn, of Franklin, Mrs. J. C. Simms and Mrs. J. W. Allman, of North Belmont, and Mrs. H. E. Cherry, of Lincolnton; and 18 grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Carol Mason, Clarence Mason, Rogers Hurst, John Smith, Frank Sellers, and Marvin Pickins.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Bethel To Plan Part In County Fair Tonight

A special meeting of the Bethel Rural Community Development Organization has been called for tonight (Thursday) at 6:30.

It will be held at the community picnic area, where the women of the community will serve a covered dish supper.

Plans for the community's participation in the coming county fair will be made following the meal.
