IMPROVEMENTS LISTED — Cullasaja Plans For Fair; 4-Hers Building Bird Boxes

By MISS MARIE JENNINGS (Community Reporter)
Main topic of discussion at the Sept. 3 meeting of the Cullasaja Rural Community Development Organization meeting was the county fair.
Plans for community and individual participation were made. Mrs. Charlie Bowers, Mrs. Leona Sadler, Mrs. John Bryson, and Mrs. Roy Stiwinter were named as a committee to prepare the community booth.
Mrs. Vernon Bryson, 4-H leader, reported that the 4-H boys are taking the building of bird boxes and houses as a project this year. The community voted to buy 4-H record book covers for the 4-H members who do not have them.
The group voted to give $25 from the treasury to the Sugar-fork Cemetery fund to be used for the upkeep of the cemetery.
Home improvements reported include: Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Thompson have a new electric stove and have painted their kitchen; Ed Jennings has painted the outside of his house; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blanton have a new power mower; Mrs. Betty Gregory has a new electric frying pan; Hal and Geraldine Henry have put cabinets and running water in their house; Charles Jefferies has put a bathroom and running water in his house; and Mrs. Lem Crisp has a new electric steam iron.

IN GERMANY — Keener Finishes Army Engineer School Course

Army Sp/3 John H. Keener recently was graduated from the U. S. Army's European Engineer School at Murnau, Germany, according to the Army Home Town News Center.
He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mell P. Keener, of Highlands. His wife, Mrs. Callie Keener, also lives in Highlands.
Specialist Keener completed the school's four-week tractor operator course, which trained him in the operation and maintenance of tractors and tractor-drawn attachments.
The 21-year-old soldier is a 1955 graduate of Highlands High School and entered service in September, 1955. He took his basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

A. S. C. Vote Machinery Is In Motion

Machinery for the election of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation community committees is now in motion.
The county A.S.C. elections board has met and set the date of the election for Oct. 8.
Community election boards this week are arranging election details and selecting slates of nominees. Nominating petitions will be accepted no later than Sept. 20.
Oct. 23 is the date set for the annual county convention.
The new county and community committees will take office Nov. 1.
