Braised Beef in Rice Ring

Wonderful eating is ahead for those who serve braised beef cubes coated with a rich dark gravy and surrounded by a ring of fluffy white rice.

Covering The Teen Scene

With Gene Dowdle

There doesn't seem to be very much response to the Hot Rod Club that was mentioned in this column last week. If the boys of Franklin want to have a club they are going to have to get out and see if they can't find some garage or some other organization to sponsor it. Boys, why don't you try to get a motor company to sponsor it? This would be more practical than a garage since they would have more equipment and trained mechanics with which to work.

Another thing that would be nice to have if the Hot Rod Club is formed, would be a pin to wear in the lapel of a coat, or maybe even a belt buckle with the name of the club inscribed on it.

While on the subject of cars, the car craze has turned to "big", or Mercury, fender skirts and the two serials that go on either fender of the back. Most of the boys have been talking about re-upholstering their cars with leatherette.

It is very hard to try to keep up with feminine fashions these days, when one isn't going to let the other out do them, so the girls have taken a likenin' to cultured pearls. They wear cultured rings, bracelets, necklaces, ear rings, and so many others it would be next to impossible to name them all. But now take a boy. Well, they are easily pleased and don't really care just as long as they keep warm. And besides, who has money to buy a new something every week. They have to keep the car cleaned up and save a little for the Saturday night date!

This top 10 tunes business is just like a race to see who can get there first. So, as we watch the race we find Johnny Cash coming down the home stretch in the lead with, "The Ballad of a Teen Age Queen"; In second place is, "Oh Julie", by the Crescendos; No. 3, "Raunchy", by Ernie Freeman; No. 4, "Get a Job", by the Mills Brothers; No. 5, "I Beg of You", by Elvis Presley; No. 6, "Peggy Sue", by Buddy Holly; No. 7, "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine", by Jimmy Rogers; No. 8, "Silhouettes", by Dean Jones; No. 9, "Don't", by Elvis Presley; and No. 10, "You Send Me", by Teresa Brewer.

A budding teenager around town is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burrell, Joann Joann was the most studious person in the class of '58. She is the valedictorian for this year's class.

Miss Burrell is also secretary and treasurer of the Beta Club, secretary of the Student Council, secretary of the Monogram Club, and also editor of the Laurel Leaf.

Joann plans to attend Pfeiffer College in Misenheimer, when she graduates with the top honors in May.

Pork Chops for Stuffing

Use an orange-raisin stuffing when preparing stuffed pork chops. Use pork rib chops for stuffing and always have your meat retainer cut a pocket for the stuffing on the rib side of the chop. Made this way, the chops will tend to hold in the stuffing more securely during the cooking period.
