Mrs. Marge Langfitt In Charlotte Hospital

Mrs. Marge Langfitt, wife of the Rev. Donn Langfitt, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian Church, was scheduled to undergo surgery for a kidney ailment in a Charlotte hospital yesterday (Wednesday). She had been hospitalized here for some time. The Langfitts and their two children drove to Charlotte last week. Dr. Hilton Seales, of Sylva, preached in Mr. Langfitt's absence Sunday morning. Mr. Langfitt is expected back the latter part of the week.

"THE SAD SACK"

McClure, who was injured in the Glenville game, racked up at 57 to 43 victory over the Swain girls.

The real thrill of the finals was provided by the Swain and Cullowhee boys, who matched points toe-to-toe right through one overtime period. Spectators, limp from screaming and yelling, nearly went wild when Swain High's rangy Phil Britnall tipped in a jump shot from the foul circle with two seconds left on the clock. The score: 49 to 47.

Scores Listed Following are the daily scores of other games played in the eastern division here:

Tuesday: Cullowhee boys over Glenville, 89 to 42; Swain boys over Webster, 74 to 47.

Wednesday: Glenville girls over Sylva, 55 to 52; Cherokee boys over Franklin, 60 to 50; Cullowhee girls over Cherokee, 61 to 26; Sylva boys over Highlands, 54 to 36.

Thursday: Cullowhee boys over Cherokee, 70 to 39; Swain girls over Highlands, 61 to 36.

Friday: Swain boys over Sylva,

64 to 48; Swain girls over Cullowhee, 52 to 41.

Rescue Squadron Organization Is Scheduled

Persons interested in the organization of a rescue squad under Civil Defense are invited to attend a meeting March 5 at the Franklin town hall at 7:30 p. m. Police Chief Sid Carter, head of the county Civil Defense setup, said this week if a squadron is organized it will be able to obtain a lot of surplus equipment, possibly even a fire truck for use in the county.

Along The Byways Of Cartoogechaye Community

Mrs. Julian Maddox

Staff Correspondent

I promised myself I would not even mention the weather, and the fact that it snowed all over the place and I was stranded on the side of Milkstick Knob and couldn't get out to put the Cartoogechaye News in the paper last week; but "it did and I was" and I do hope that you missed me!

The Rev. Earl Crowe, pastor of Mt. Zion Methodist Church, spent several days in Chapel Hill last week as guest of Neal Forney, who is assistant director of the Institute of Government at the University of North Carolina. Mrs. Crowe and the children accompanied Mr. Crowe as far as Charlotte, where she visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Crowe, Sr.

SCHOOL NEWS — The Cartoogechaye P.-T. A. meeting for February was called off last week, and there will be no meeting until the regular time of the March meeting, which will be on Tuesday night, March 18. As president of the Cartoogechaye P.-T. A. I would like to urge all parents to plan to go to Otto School next Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. and hear Dr. H. Koeppe-Baker speak; and later, hear a message by the Rev. Robert Standley, pastor of the First Baptist Church. There will be a nursery for small children while the meeting is in session.

'Founders' Day' Observed By East Franklin P.-T. A.

"Founders' Day" was observed by East Franklin P.-T. A. Tuesday night.

Past presidents of the organization were honored, including Mr. Curtis Pearson, Walter Taylor, Mrs. Ernest Hyde, and Mrs. Clyde Sanders. W. G. Crawford, who has served as principal of the school since it was built, also was honored.

Featuring the program also was a panel similar to "What's My Line?", with Jim Goodwin serving as moderator.

Mrs. Harry Pangle, president, presided.

Following the program, a social hour was held. The past presidents assisted in serving birthday cake, which was baked in honor of "Founders' Day".

THIS AND THAT — Frank Nolen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nolen, spent the week end with his parents. Frank is a student at Gaston Technical Institute, Gastonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crawford visited relatives in Atlanta, Ga., over the week end.

Miss Elsie Lee was called to Kingstree, South Car., because of the serious illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Leroy Lee. Miss Nell Henson made the trip with Miss Lee.

Mrs. J. H. Brookshire left Monday to go to Demorest, Ga., to visit her father, W. E. Palmer, who is very ill.

Walter Johnson and family recently moved to Cartoogechaye community from Canton. The Johnsons are natives of this community.
