HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO LICK ALL THE STAMPS?
Floridians who read of her bout with rheumatic fever and other illnesses just about covered up seven-year-old Alma Smith with get-well cards and Valentines. At last count, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, of the Iotla community, had received 2,602 cards. That's Alma smiling above with some of them (Staff Photo)

INSTALLATION IS NEXT MONTH — Garden Club '58 Officers Nominated; 'April Showers' Program Presented

The Franklin Garden Club held its regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. R. Simpson, with Mrs. A. R. Higdon presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. B. L. McGlamery. The program subject, "April Showers", was presented by Mrs. Simpson, who gave useful suggestions regarding pruning of early and late blooming shrubs and advice on fertilizing and mulching shrubs and bulbs. She also urged that everyone try to plant something new. The nominating committee's report was submitted and accepted and the following officers will be installed at next month's luncheon meeting: Mrs. S. R. Simpson, president; Mrs. A. R. Higdon, vice-president; Mrs. John Bulgin, secretary; Mrs. W. E. Furr, treasurer; and Mrs. Zeb Conley, corresponding secretary. Mrs. R. G. Lichtenstein, chairman, and Mrs. J. E. Perry, Jr., and Mrs. E. S. Purdom were appointed as a committee to make plans for the luncheon. Mrs. William Dennis, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that the bird houses and feeders which they have for sale to members, and to others, will be on display at Angel's Drug Store from Wednesday through Friday of this week. A member of the club will be there all day Friday to take orders for these items. Miss Adalaide Brewer was welcomed as a new member of the club. Poor visibility is a poor excuse for an accident, says the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles. Dirty windshields and windows not only reduce your ability to see, but they can also cause unnecessary fatigue.

Scout McAllister Honor As Outstanding In Maplewood, N. J.

J. S. McAllister, Jr., 17, recently was chosen as "the outstanding Boy Scout" in the city of Maplewood, N. J., it has been learned here. Young McAllister is the grandson of Mrs. W. W. Sloan, of Franklin. His mother is the former Miss Betty Sloan. When the Maplewood Boy Scout Council office was asked to select the city's outstanding Scout to present a plaque to the fire department for its work in promoting safety, the office chose young McAllister to make the presentation.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank relatives and friends of Mrs. Fred Norris for their many acts of kindness and sympathy and for the beautiful flowers.
