

Smoky Mountain Cloggers See City

MACON'S now widely-known Smoky Mountain Cloggers did a little sightseeing in New York City after their appearance on the Ed Sullivan show (see dancing picture) on March 2. The following day, with The Press' New York correspondent and photographer they toured the city and took in many of the points of interest. In the group picture above, they're on the top of the then fog-bound Empire State Building. They also got to see the Statue of Liberty, from a ferry, visited Radio City, and had lunch at Sardi's. Miss Waldroop, Macon Native, Dies At Clinic

Miss Leola Waldroop, a native of this county, died at 4 p. m. March 5 at Angel Clinic. Seventy-four years old, she had been in declining health for some time. Funeral services were conducted the following afternoon at the Carson Chapel Methodist Church, of which she was a member. Officiating was the Rev. S. B. Moss.

Born Aug. 14, 1883, she was the daughter of the late Alex and Mrs. Polly Tritt Waldroop. Miss Waldroop lived in the Ridgcrest community (Route 4). Surviving is a brother, Henry E. Waldroop, of Franklin, Route 1, and several nieces and nephews.

Serving as pallbearers were Earl Cabe, Jess Shope, Edd Wallace, Robert Vinson, Ted Gillespie, and William R. Pressley.

Bryant Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Along The Byways Of Cartoogechaye Community

Mrs. Julian Maddox

Staff Correspondent

Spring is very much in evidence out in our community. How about yours? The bird's song seems cheerier, the smile of a neighbor brighter, the children noisier; and I found some beautiful shoots of rhubarb out in my garden. Once I heard a fellow say that it would take half of the sugar in Macon County to decently sweeten a dish of that stuff, but I really like that "pie plant".

One reason we are so gay out in Wayah Valley and thereabouts is because, "Hurrah, Sally is back at Nonah Craft House!" All of you artistic people can get out your dreams of the place mats you want to weave and that enameled piece that just must be made, and bring them into reality.

Church News—The R. A.'s and the G. A.'s of Mount Hope Baptist Church played basketball with the R. A.'s and G. A.'s of Iotia Baptist Church at the Iotia school last Thursday night. The girls from Mount Hope were victorious, and the boys of Iotia won.

School News—If you want to have a gay time on Saturday night, March 22, you just plan to be at Cartoogechaye School. Will tell you more about this next week, but be sure to save that date for fun with your family. The regular March meeting of P. T. A. will be held at the school on Tuesday night, March 18, at 7:30. All grade mothers of the first, second, and third grades are asked to be at the school by 7 for an important meeting.

Six members of the Cartoogechaye P. T. A. attended the study course at Otto on Tuesday of last week.

Community News—The Cartoogechaye Community 4-H Club met at the community building Saturday night, March 8. President Robert Enloe presided and there were 10 members present. During the meeting plans were discussed for a float to be entered in the 4-H parade; Charlie Enloe gave a report on the happenings at 4-H "Achievement Day"; and the president appointed Jimmy Nolen chairman of the recreation committee.

The home demonstration club will meet at the home of Mrs. R. D. Fannon on Wednesday, March 19. This will be an all-day affair and all members are asked to bring a covered dish and be at Mrs. Fannon's at 10 a. m.

This and That—Mr. and Mrs. Grover Schafer have recently returned home from a Caribbean cruise. Immediately after their return to Wayah Valley, they had as guests Mrs. Schafer's brother, Harold Dale and his wife, from Sioux Falls, S. D.

Chief Warrant Officer E. C.

Monaghan, Mrs. Monaghan, and their four children are guests of the John Gunn's. However, the Monaghans will soon be at home on White Oak Street in Franklin. They are moving here from Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gunn are just back from a vacation in Florida. They spent four weeks visiting friends and relatives around Jacksonville.

Mrs. Charles Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waldroop, underwent surgery this week at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville.

Keep accurate and complete farm records; they are one of the keys to successful farming.
