Longview Baptist Church

HAS 104 MEMBERS — Vacant Store First Worship Place For Longview Church

A vacant store was used as a place of worship for several months following the organization of the Longview Baptist Church June 28, 1942.

The Rev. George A. Cloer was moderator and the Rev. Lester Sorrells was appointed a member of his council to assist in the organization of the church.

There were 11 charter members, Mrs. Mattie Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. John Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Jones, W. R. Stockton, Miss Ruth Anderson, the Rev. Lake Ledford, Freeman Hastings, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ramey.

Sorrells Pastor

Mr. Sorrells was elected pastor and Mrs. Ramey the church clerk. Ed Ramey was admitted as a deacon from the Watauga Baptist Church.

At the suggestion of John Angel, the name, Longview, was adopted for the newly-organized church. The Sunday school was organized with Ed Ramey as superintendent.

In October, 1942, 12 new members were added to the church roll during a revival conducted by the Rev. W. L. Sorrells.

Building Plans

Plans were soon under way for building a church. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Hastings donated the land for the building and on Christmas day, 1942, the pastor and several members met and dedicated the lot to God. The building was soon started. The work, much of it free labor, progressed rapidly, and on May 13, 1943, the first service was held in the church. The Rev. Lester Sorrells preached the first sermon.

The building was virtually completed under Mr. Sorrells' leadership. October 15, 1945, the pastor died. At the time of his death, the church had grown to a membership of 49.

McGinnis Elected

The Rev. S. T. McGinnis was elected pastor in March, 1946, and he served until 1947. The Rev. Arvil Swafford stepped in as pastor May 25, 1947, and served until Feb. 12, 1950.

Building now completed, the dedication service was held Jan. 29, 1950, with the Rev. W. L. Sorrells preaching the dedicatory sermon.

The Rev. George A. Cloer was elected pastor Feb. 8, 1950, and served until July, 1952. Several new members were added during his tenure.

He was succeeded by the Rev. C. T. Taylor, who served until April 1, 1954, when he resigned to take over the duties of associational missionary.

As supply pastor, the Rev. W. N. Cook served until June 20, 1954, when the Rev. W. A. Cloer was elected. He is still pastor.

On March 27, 1955, the church voted to build an educational building, which, when completed, will have a baptistry, 15 classrooms, and two dressing rooms.

The church now has 104 resident members.

Angel Hospital Is Accredited

Angel Hospital here is listed among 16 institutions in Western North Carolina receiving accreditation by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. The commission is an agency established by five organizations, the American College of Physicians, American College of Surgeons, American Hospital Association, American Medical Association, and the Canadian Medical Association.

In its announcement, the agency explained that omission of the name of a hospital from the list does not necessarily mean it has failed to pass an accreditation survey, since the program is voluntary.

Weathering the winds of many a long year

This old windmill, still standing today, bears witness to the fact that the early Dutch settlers in this country believed in building solidly for the future. In much the same spirit of building for permanence, was this bank founded. Through the years, it has held steadfast to its original principle of faithful service to its depositors.
