

Items Of Interest From Cowee Community

Miss Cecile Gibson Staff Correspondent

Don't forget tonight (Thursday) is the regular meeting of the community development organization. The meeting will be held at the school at 7:30, and a good program is planned.

The home demonstration club held its regular meeting at the school April 25. Mrs. C. C. Welch gave the devotional. The subject of the demonstration given by Mrs. Florence Sherrill was, "Dress For the Occasion." She gave general rules which are helpful in deciding what to wear for different occasions. Plans were made for the district meeting which is being held at Soco Methodist Center today (May 1), and for the dress review which will be held May 7 at the East Franklin School.

The club voted to give a citizenship award to the most outstanding student of the 8th grade at Cowee School.

Mrs. Troy Hurst received the attendance prize.

The Young Adult Sunday School Class of the Snow Hill Methodist Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Byrd Friday night for its monthly meeting and a covered dish supper. Following the supper, Mrs. Grace Tatham gave the devotional and Edward Sheffield, president, conducted the business session.

Attention! All Adult choir members of Cowee Baptist Church please be at choir practice Friday night at 7:45 p. m. This is an important rehearsal.

Miss Annie Lee McGaha represented Cowee at the regional training union meeting at Franklin Baptist Church Saturday, where she was a winner. She will go to Fruitland to participate in the state tournament which will be held June 24.

Cowee's revival will begin Sunday morning, May 4, with the Rev. Joe Miller as evangelist. Everyone is invited to attend.

Liberty Baptist Church is observing "Youth Week". All officers and teachers appointed to serve during this week are requested to be at choir practice Friday night, May 2, at 7:30.

The revival will begin at Liberty Sunday night, May 4, with the Rev. Cecil Arney, of Lenoir, doing the preaching. The public is invited to attend.

A welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Day, newcomers to the community. They recently moved here from Nantahala.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Clark and family had as recent week end guests their nieces, Misses Catherine and Frances Poindexter, of Matthews.

Mrs. Albert Stevens and two children, Ann and Gary, of Augusta, Ga., spent the week end with Mrs. Stevens' mother, Mrs. W. H. Dalton, and sister, Mrs. Della Lou Shepherd.

Mrs. George Byrd and daughter, Jane, were in Asheville on business Wednesday of last week.

Miss Patricia Tatham and her roommate, Miss Lynn Elzey, from Brevard College, spent the week end at her home here.

Miss Josephine Dalton visited friends in Gastonia during the week end.

Mrs. Burdell Ray is improving following a major operation at Angel Hospital.

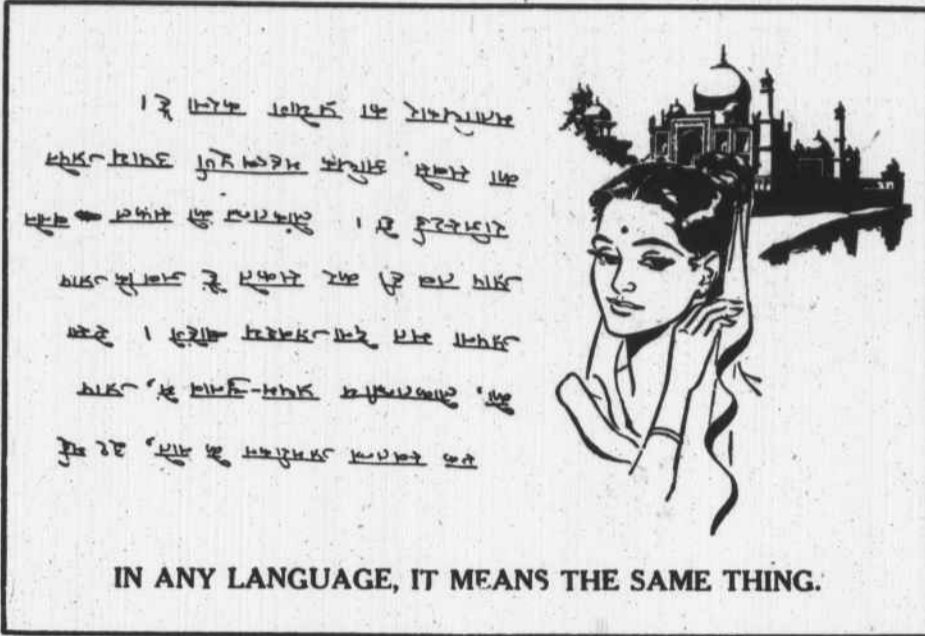

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Hurst and granddaughter, Jo Cloer, had as guests Sunday Mrs. Hurst's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Hall, of Sylva, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bishop and family, of Cullowhee. Miss Joyce Bishop is spending this week with the Hursts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Shepherd and son, Prince, and grandson, Curtis Swafford, of Candler, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Shepherd and family.

W. A. Springs, of Buffalo, S. C., is spending some time with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Holbrook.

It's never too late to have your soil tested.

Cotton is expected to be a profitable crop in 1958.

IN ANY LANGUAGE, IT MEANS THE SAME THING.
