

Bits And Briefs From Cullasaja And Higdonville

Miss Marie Jennings Staff Correspondent

Church News
A vacation Bible school is being held this week at Higdonville Baptist Church. Hours are 9 to 12 noon each day. The Rev. Paul Sorrells is principal.

Revival services are still in progress at the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church, with the pastor, the Rev. Conrad Barrett, doing the preaching. Song services begin at 7:45 p.m. The public is invited.

4-H Club Meets
Miss Patricia Bryson, 4-H reporter, reports the Cullasaja 4-H Club met Tuesday of last week at the Cullasaja Assembly of God parsonage. They raked the yard, sowed grass, and planted flowers. The community's project of building a road into the parsonage and graveling it has just recently been completed.

Last Thursday the 4-H group, with its leader, Mrs. Vernon Bryson, met at the 4-H grounds at the intersection of Sugarfork Church Road and US 64 and mowed and raked the plot. Mrs. Bryson served soft drinks and cookies.

H. D. News
Mrs. H. T. Horsley entertained the Cullasaja Home Demonstration Club last Friday afternoon. There were 10 present. Mrs. Florence Sherrill was in charge of the discussion on the freezing of foods. Refreshments were served.

The Higdonville club will meet June 19 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ted Higdon. Members are urged to attend.

Bill Raby Speaks
Cooperation and our duty to our community were stressed by Bill Raby, president of the Macon Community Development Council when he spoke to the Higdonville organization last Thursday night. A large group attended and a covered dish supper was served.

It was reported that the community's Lord's Acre project has done well. They raised a hay crop of orchard grass and clover, which has been cut and baled. This hay is now available for sale. Anyone interested in buying should contact Fred Corbin, community president, or W. W. (Dude) Berry. The hay is stored at Mr. Berry's farm. Fred Corbin gave the land for the project. The proceeds will be given to the Higdonville Baptist Church.

The 4-H Club will give next month's program, which will be at the picnic area again.

Cullasaja Meets
Although only 19 were present at the meeting of Cullasaja community organization June 3, several important plans were made and accomplishments reported. The attendance was down because of the revival meeting at the Assembly of God Church.

June 6 and 7 were set for the men to do some mowing at the Sugarfork Cemetery. Pat Cable reported that he had contacted Howard Stewart and Mr. Stewart will do the proposed grading on the church grounds this week.

It was reported that a new register book has been placed at the picnic area. Charlie Holland reported that he had repaired the water fountain. Pritchard Russell, Pat Cable, John Bryson, David Hughes, and Charlie Holland volunteered to do the cleanup work at the picnic area this month.

The group voted to paint the Salem Methodist Church June 14.

Home improvements reported were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCall, a new bedroom suite; Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson, home freezer; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sondheimer, home freezer; Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Thompson, home freezer; T. T. Henderson, a new tractor; Mrs. Fred Rogers, Mrs. Kenneth Rogers, and Mrs. Fred Bryson, Jr., new electric sewing machines; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moses have done some remodeling work and are putting tile on their floors; Fred Rogers, has built a new brooder house with a capacity for 1,700; Fred Bryson, Jr., has put a new roof on his chicken house; and Bobby Sondheimer has bought an automatic plant setter.

Plans were made for a rummage sale in July and a "white elephant" sale and tacky party in August.

Monday night, June 30, was set for a community picnic at the picnic area. Everyone is urged to attend and bring a basket of food.

Pat Cable was in charge of the devotional and Mrs. John Bryson dismissed the group with prayer. Pat Cable's name was drawn for the door prize.
