Mrs. Williams Dies Saturday In Rabun Gap

Mrs. Kannie Williams, a former resident of the Cullasaja community (Route 5), died Saturday in Rabun Gap, Ga. She was the former Miss Annie

Mae Bowers, daughter of Mrs. S. W. Bowers and the late Mr. Bowers.

Other survivors include two brothers, Joe and Charlie Bowers, and four sisters, Misses Lelia,

Dora, and Cora Dean Bowers and Mrs. Ruth Brown, all of Franklin, Route 5.

Funeral services were held Monday in Rabun Gap.

Remember that grain is food—keep it clean and free from rats.

Sting nematodes, which attack peanut plants, also attack other crops, including corn and cotton.

GRAND OPENING

... SUNDAY, JUNE 29 ...

The New

DIXIE GRILL

The Montagues and their employes are (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. Montague, Furman McGaha, Gertrude Gregory, Morris Davis, and Ann Teems.

The Montagues —

SERVING FINE

FOOD SINCE 1938

For the past 20 years Mr. and Mrs. Kay Montague have operated their Dixie Grill in Franklin. Their latest and sixth Dixie Grill, next to the river bridge, is modern and attractive. A pleasant atmosphere inside is created by the pine paneling, indirect lighting, and ample window space. A 30 car concrete curb service parking lot joins the flower beds on the sides of the building. Although the prices are behind the times (regular dinners still 75c), the service is quick and friendly, and just about everyone in town can tell you the Montagues always serve food that is delicious.

On The Menu ...
