Community Meet

The August meeting of the Iotla Rural Community Development Organization will be held Monday night, August 11, at 7:30 o'clock at the picnic area. Business to be taken up will include plans for graveling a road into the picnic area, the building of a shelter, installation of a meter for electricity, and the construction of a booth for the educational department of the fair.

Going To Camp

Brent Southards, member of the Iotla Community 4-H Club, has been chosen as one of four club members from Macon County to attend leadership camp at Swannanoa next week. He will receive instructions in art, crafts, and recreation, which he will teach to other club members when he returns. Brent has completed projects in Tree Identification, Crafts, and Home Safety during his three years in 4-H Club work. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Southards, of Route 3.

Class To Meet

The Home Builders Class of the Iotla Baptist Church will meet Saturday night, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell for a business meeting. All members are urged to attend.

4-H Workshop

Members of the Iotla Community 4-H Club are asked to be present Tuesday night, at 7:30 o'clock, in the basement of the Iotla Baptist Church, for a leather-craft workshop. Plans will be made for individual entries and a club booth in the Macon County Fair to be held August 21-23.

Club To Meet

Miss Adelaide Brewer will be hostess to the members of the Iotla Home Demonstration Club when they meet at her home next Wednesday, at 12 o'clock, for a picnic and craft workshop. The afternoon's plans call for making baskets, mats, trays, and other articles from reed, taught by Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, home agent.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Childers, of Pontiac, Mich., are visiting Mrs. Childers' mother, Mrs. Hazel Fouts, and other relatives in the Iotla community.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Penland, and children, of Laurens, S. C., are visiting relatives here this week.

Charlie Woody, of Pontiac, Mich., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Woody, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayse Penland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crawford, in High Point this week.
