Schools Closing Tuesday For Area Teachers Meeting

A "vacation" is coming up Tuesday for Macon's school children

Schools will close for the day so principals and teachers may attend the 36th annual convention of the west-ern district N. C. Education Association in Asheville.

Among those taking part in the divisional and depart-mental programs of the con-vention will be Mrs. Beth Guf fey, county elementary super-visor, and Miss Esther Seay, special class teacher.

Making up the district are the 14 western counties of Buncombe, Cherokee, Clay,
Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Polk, Swain, Transylvania, and Yancey.

Principal speaker at the general session in the morming at Lee H. Edwards High School will be Lyman Ginger, N.E.A. junior past president and dean of the Department of Education at the University of Kentucky.

Bulgin Youth Gets Perfect Score On Navy Examination

A Franklin youth, John Randolph Bulgin, achieved a perfect score on his Armed Forces Qualification Test when enlisting in the U.S. Navy this month, something no other enlistee in the six western counties has ever done, according to the local recruiting

Lt. Commander W. E. Render, officer in charge of the Columbia, S. C., recruiting district, praised young Bulgin for his achievement, declaring, "Perfect scores are very rare and your naval career should certainly be a most rewarding one for both the Navy and for you."

Randolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bulgin, of Franklin, is now taking his recruit training at the U.S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill.

Postmaster Says Oct. 18 Is Date Set For Change

City mail delivery will start in Franklin October 18, according to an announcement received by Postmaster Zeb Meadows from his superiors Saturday.

This unexpected development represents a high point in community service for the Franklin Lions Club, which has been working toward house delivery of mail for some eight years.

Commenting on the swiftness with which the Post Office Department (an inspector was here only last month) moved, Mr. Meadows said he personally expected the change about the first of the year and possibly later. "I guess you could say it is
