Two Slagle Guernseys
Are Summarized Sires

Two registered Guernsey bulls owned by A. B. Slagle, Macon County dairyman, have become summarized sires, according to the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

To attain this distinction, a bull must have at least 10 daughters with official production records.

The bulls are Grand View Daisy's Hardwick and Sky Brook Rose Maxim's Fashion.

"Hardwick" has 26 tested daughters that have made 29 official records. Their average production is 10,206 pounds of milk and 471 pounds of fat, when converted to a twice-daily milking, 305-day, mature equivalent basis.

This Guernsey bull was bred by Estate S. C. Price, Sugarloaf, Pennsylvania. This bull's sire was Coldspring's Beauty's Romulus and it's dam was Coldspring's Beauty's Daisy, that posted an official production record of 16,591 pounds of milk and 838 pounds of fat.

"Harwick" also has had one of his registered daughters classified with an average rating of desirable.

"Fashion" has 48 tested daughters that have made 81 official records. Their average production is 9,241 pounds of milk and 459 pounds of fat, when converted to a twice-daily milking, 305-day mature equivalent basis.

This bull was bred by H. R. Hayford, Hendersonville, North Carolina. This bull's sire was Rose Maxim and it's dam was Fanny's Girl, of Connemara Farm, that posted an official production record of 19,100 pounds of milk and 902 pounds of fat.

"Fashion" has had 13 of his registered daughters classified with an average rating of desirable.
