

Miss Plemmons
Receives Degree;
Here For Visit

Miss Edith Plemmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Plemmons, is spending a few days with her parents. She just received her master of music degree from the University of Oklahoma. Following her visit here, Miss Plemmons will resume her duties as organist and music assistant at the First Baptist Church in Columbia, S. C.

It isn't the right of way that counts as much as driving the right way, says the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles. Controlling a car on slippery roads tests a driver's skill to the utmost.

ENGAGED TO DRYMAN

Miss Priscilla Lane Stiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Stiles, of Rabun Gap, Ga., is engaged to Richard Levon Dryman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Prelo Dryman, of Franklin. The engagement was announced this week by her parents. Wedding plans are incomplete.

IN HOME CEREMONY —
Miss Carolyn Tippett
Weds Paul Kinsland, Jr.

Miss Carolyn Tippett became the bride of Paul Judson Kinsland, Jr., Friday night, January 9, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tippett, of Franklin, Route 4.

Mr. Kinsland is the son of Paul J. Kinsland, of Franklin, and the late Mrs. Ruby Mason Kinsland. The bride and groom entered the living room together. The Rev. Arvil Swafford performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit, with which she wore white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations and she carried a white Bible.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Tippett, mother of the bride, wore a blue dress with white and black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinsland are living at present on Route 3. Mrs. Kinsland, a senior at Franklin High School, is a part-time employee in the register of deeds office in Franklin. Mr. Kinsland, a graduate of Franklin High School, Class of 1956, worked until recently for S. A. Healy Co., of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Coleen Clouse and Mrs. Jimmy Tippett entertained Mrs. Kinsland with a personal bridal shower at the home of Miss Clouse December 20. About 20 friends of the bride attended. The honoree was presented with many gifts. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Paul Kinsland, Jr.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED —
Garden Club Re-Elects
Mrs. Simpson President

At its monthly meeting Monday afternoon in the social hall of the First Baptist Church, the Franklin Garden Club elected the following officers to serve for the year:

President, (re-elected) Mrs. S. R. Simpson; vice-president, Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones; secretary, Mrs. Steve Bundy; treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Nothstein; and corresponding secretary, Miss Adelaide Brewer.

A committee made up of Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, Mrs. Allan Brooks, Mrs. B. L. McGlamery, Miss Laura Jones, and Miss H. L. Bryant was appointed to revise by-laws of the club.

Mrs. Sam Winkleblack, horticulture chairman, was in charge of the program and gave a talk on pruning shrubs, trees, and vines and on the planting and care of seed
