CULLS FROM A NEWSMAN'S NOTEBOOK:

If you're looking for a new thrill in eating, you might like to try the cuisine publicized on a sign near Lake Rabun in Georgia: "Ice Cold Beer and Red Worms".

A lot of people must love Chapel Hill as this newsman does. The little blurb I did on The Hill a couple of weeks back stirred considerable comment. Thanks to all for their interest.

Interest in the Cowee Ruby Mines already is running higher than last year. This indicates what most of us have been predicting. That is that '59 at the ruby mines is going to be the best year so far.

Is there a more winding road anywhere in the country than from here to Brevard through Highlands?

I like the sign someone reports seeing on the back of a small foreign car: "Quit blowing your horn. I'm pedaling as fast as I can."

State Jaycee President Marvin Koonce almost became a resident of Franklin Friday night. The automatic shift in his car froze in "Park".

What Macon County really needs is an industry employing about 400-500 men.

We're happily waiting for a "first" in Franklin. That'll be the first dog bite suffered by the new mail carrier.

Carpenter Takes Heart Fund Post

Robert C. (Bob) Carpenter has been appointed treasurer of the Macon Heart Fund, it was announced this week by Mr. Roy M. Biddle, Jr., chairman of the Macon County Heart Committee.

"While the major fund-raising efforts on behalf of the Heart program, both in this county and state and throughout the nation, take place in February," Mr. Biddle said, "memorial gifts on behalf of people who have died from heart or blood vessel diseases are acceptable at any time during the year. For this reason, we are delighted that Mr. Carpenter has accepted the post of treasurer of our local Heart Fund. People who wish to make such memorial donations may send checks to him in this capacity."

WHY IT PAYS TO BUY YOUR LIFE INSURANCE FROM JEFFERSON STANDARD

- You can ask your neighbor about the policy. Chances are he has one. There are many paid up retirement policies here. Each year Jefferson Standard invests many times more money in Macon County than it takes out.
- Experienced local agents to advise you in what is the best policy to meet your needs. E. J. Carpenter has been writing Jefferson Standard policies for 25 years, he knows the subject. Robert (Bob) Carpenter has ten years experience.
- All types of life insurance, except group or industrial, available including 55, 60, 65, 70 year retirement.
- Other plans include Business Life Insurance, Family Plans, Ordinary Life, with 10, 20 year pay plan.
- Sold on annual, semi-annual, quarterly, or monthly premium draft basis. Agent does not collect money.
- We are glad to assist you in any way we can and if you call, but we do not make door to door calls as we could not see everyone. Please call if you have an insurance problem.
- Life insurance for wealthy, poor and the in-between.
