H. D. Club Meets
 The Carson Home Demonstration Club held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Moore Tuesday, February 10. A devotion, "Concerning Prayer," was presented by Mrs. Paul Heafner. A demonstration, "Modern Cookery of Beans, Peas, Lentils," was given by Mrs. Jim Hauser and Mrs. Moore.

Dimes were collected from club members for the fourth CARE package from the club. Mrs. Jim Hauser gave the $1 for the war orphan Macon home demonstration club women have adopted. Mrs. Nelson Waldroop gave the $1 las tmonth. Each month a different club woman gives.

Various book reports and other reports concerning other meetings were given as a means of collecting "points." Mrs. J. R. Ray announced that Miss Sally Kesler will teach a class in ceramics on Wednesday. Any interested person is invited to attend.

The club voted to sponsor the community supper and program. Organizations in the community parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Moore, he will go to Albuquerque, N. M., for four week's schooling before returning to his ship in the Mediterranean.

Sponsors Program
 Approximately 50 people attended the covered dish supper and community meeting held at Carson Community Center last Saturday night, February 14. The 4-H Club members appearing on the entertainment program were Tommy Sherrill, piano solo; Jean Dills and Suzanne Cunningham, tap dance; and Brenda Cunningham and Sandra Norton, peace song.

The president, Weaver Hurst, suggested that a set of goals be adopted by the community for the year. The goals adopted were (1) To try to increase the community library in both quality and quantity, (2) To support all youth activities, (3) To make improvements on the community building, (4) To improve mail boxes and signs, (5) To attain a higher sense of fellowship in neighbor relations, and (6) To help, by means of interesting and informative programs at community meetings, to improve farm income, health, safety, and spiritual life.

Mr. Hurst asked that the committees appointed for last year continue to serve this year. He also asked the building committee to give a report at the next meeting on possible ways of fixing a "dust proof" community building floor.

The organization voted to give
