Quality Shop Has Moved To Suburbs

One of Franklin's oldest retail clothing stores, The Quality Shop, recently opened one of Franklin's newest type stores.

The Quality Shop, following a modern trend, has moved to the suburbs with an "in-the home" shop featuring ladies goods only. The new store, owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Katenbrink, is in their new home located one mile south of Franklin on US 23-441 near Franklin Hosiery Company.

Witnesses Going To S. C. Meeting

A number of Jehovah's Witnesses from Kingdom Hall in Franklin will attend a three-day convention March 27-29-29 in Anderson, S. C., according to R. G. DeCelles, presiding minister.

Local activities for the coming week include an observance of the Lord's evening meal Monday at 7:30 p.m.; regular studies tonight (Thursday) at 7:30, Sunday at 4 p.m., and Tuesday at 7:30.

Open-Air Services Start Saturday In Franklin

Open-Air preaching services started in Franklin Saturday under the sponsorship of the Rev. Bill Shields, pastor of the Pine Grove Baptist Church, and the Rev. Thad R. Dowdle, a student at Southeastern Baptist Seminary at Wake Forest, who serves the Ridgecrest Baptist Church.

Services will be held every Saturday from the porch of the old Munday building, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Other ministers of the county and the evangelistic committee of the Macon Baptist Association are cooperating in the services. An organ or piano is supplied each week by Cagle Music Company.
